KICKBACK! QUESTION! DISOBEY!

ISSUE 2

STRIKEFORCE is published independently of any political organisation and is a forum for White Revolutionaries who wish to make no compromise whatsoever with the system that seeks to destroy our movement.

Strikeforce promotes racial pride and racial separation and stands opposed to race-mixing and racial hatred. It does not seek to incite violence against people of other races. Our mutual enemies are the faceless bureaucrats and their treacherous lackeys in the government who have created this unnatural hell we are being forced to endure.

Strikeforce will carry news and articles concerning our struggle with a small section on the White Power music scene. Articles by groups or individuals, letters, photos, artwork and press cuttings are welcomed for publication. We will support any direct action groups. We will also monitor Government/Special Branch/MI5 activities and keep you informed. Please send us anything you may consider of interest from around the world and if it is worth publishing we will be happy to do so.

Greetings Comrades

Welcome to issue 2 of Strikeforce. The response we've received to issue 1 has been overwhelming from all quarters. Although I am a member of Combat 18, this publication is for ALL seditionists and White survivalists, irrespective of which organisation they belong to. We welcome articles and material from anyone involved in our struggle and where possible we will include them in the mag. We must state that we are not going to get involved in the arguments or problems of other groups and this magazine is not going to be used to slag off other organisations, apart from anyone who has anything to do with the Special Branch grasses the Sargents. Although we are quite entitled to sit here and say 'we told you so' after the press and police were forced to admit Charlie Sargent's role as a Special Branch agent, it doesn't give us any satisfaction because it doesn't bring Chris back and it doesn't help his family to come to terms with their grief. The only good thing to come out of this tragedy is that it has taught us some very important lessons: it has shown us exactly who the decent movement people are and it has shown up the scum for what they are. It has also helped us to ensure that things like this never occur again. Membership to C18 will be very exclusive and only open to people who are considered worthy. At this moment in time, C18 has all the people it requires and recruitment is on hold. C18 is no longer a big drinking club but a serious organisation with proper aims and objectives: an organisation that can afford to be selective, in fact has to be selective, to avoid any undesirables infiltrating our ranks. We also advise all other groups to tighten up security as well to avoid any more security breaches by Special Branch operatives using 'Co-Intel-Pro' to cause major disruption yet again. After the chaos and destruction that the Sargents have caused the whole movement over the past four years, there can be no excuses if it is allowed to happen again. You've been warned - so be vigilant.

As for the resistance movement, it has to change. We are hurtling towards the Millennium and the New World Order: the old methods have failed our people. We aren't living in the 1930s anymore and methods that may have worked then are not going to work now: If members of the resistance don't realise this then we are doomed to total failure: In the coming fight we will be trodden into the ground, squashed like insignificant bugs under the heels of ZOG's boots. Is that what you want White man? Are you going to carry on marching up and down the roads winging about Blacks coming here, etc., etc., for the next sixty years, waving your little Union Flags to an apathetic public who stop and stare at you as though you were a travelling circus, while the real enemy count their shekels and drink their vintage champagne? Wake up White man - you're shutting the stable door after the horse has bolted - that stage of the battle is over and we've lost! Now is the time to move onto the next phase of the battle. It is no longer a case of stopping our nations being invaded and taken over. It's time to realise that the occupational government is now firmly in place and has already massed its foreign mercenaries in Europe. For those of you who want to continue marching up and down the streets for the next sixty years, you may as well wear black armbands because all you will be is the White race's funeral procession; forever attacking the symptoms but never the cause.

For those of you who have woken up to the gravity of the situation and can see past ZOG's coloured cannon fodder and see the Capitalist dogs who pull the strings, those mainly White one-worlder race-traitors, then you will realise that

NOW IS THE TIME TO REGROUP -
GO UNDERGROUND AND TRAIN FOR THE COUNTER-OFFENSIVE!

WELCOME TO THE MARDI GRAS EXPERIENCE

Most people in Britain, most certainly in London, will have seen the press horror stories about the so-called 'Mardi Gras' bomber. It is only recently that they have given news coverage to the mysterious bomber: Why? Well, it turns out that he has been operating for over three years, clearly running rings around the Special Branch's 'International Organised Crime Group'. These boys don't mess around; they are the cream of Scotland Yard, leading experts on modern surveillance techniques, the use of criminal psychologists, informers and agents. It was these scumbags who took over operations against C18 a few years ago and had some successes such as the 'Black Mag' raids, the 'Stormer' raids and more notably the 'Denmark' operations. But then again they had a lot of inside help didn't they Sargent?

Anyway, it is the organised crime group who also targeted Animal Liberation Front bombers recently, resulting in one member getting 14 years in jail, I think. It is clear that Special Branch/ZOG are using this elite crime group to smash dissident groups on the left and so-called 'right'.

The head of this 'elite' group was until recently led by a particularly slippery individual who's surname was Graham. Other prominent members of this group included Wall, Madden and Sinclair. DI Graham has since left, and is now in charge of a specialist ZOG training department specialising in training recruits to counter anti-government organisations. Although the 'Organised Crime Group' has proved successful in dealing with groups and organisations thanks to its heavy use of informers and agents, it has up until now failed to stop the lone 'Mardi Gras' bomber. The 'Mardi Gras' bomber is ZOG's nightmare; he is intelligent and capable of making bombs and booby traps; he works ALONE and it seems he is totally autonomous; he strikes at random and without warning. He targets big businesses and he seems to have a grudge. The 'Mardi Gras' campaign started with bombs being left in Barclays Bank branches and sent to them in the post. He then went to ground for around 18 months before springing back to life in November 1997 with attacks on Sainsbury's stores around the capital. Police fear he has modelled himself on the American 'Unabomber', who sent increasingly sophisticated and powerful bombs through the post, avoiding detection for about 15 years before being turned in by his brother. We at Strikeforce don't know the the 'Mardi Gras' bomber's political orientation, his race or his motives and we don't condone his attacks on stores where innocent shoppers could be hurt, but we have to agree that he is very effective and his 'modus operandi' is proving to cause ZOG a few problems: Look at the trouble he is causing, yet he is a one man cell. Imagine if there were fifty White Resistance 'Mardi Gras' Bombers. Think about it!

So the moral of this story is: 1/ Don't let your granny go shopping in Sainsbury's.
2/ LEADERLESS RESISTANCE DOES WORK!

AND THE WERWOLVES FOUGHT ON

Fascinating new evidence has recently been uncovered shedding light on the post-war underground National Socialist guerrilla fighters known as Werwolf. The Werwolves' heroic fight against the occupying forces have been played down by successive Allied governments in an attempt to maintain the myth that the German people were against Hitler and that the Allied forces liberated them. Yeah, right, the truth is very different of course.

For several years after the war, heavily armed guerrillas were fighting on in the mountains of central Germany. These heroes were led by an ex-Luftwaffe officer as they harassed Allied soldiers and German traitors who collaborated with the Allies. They continued the fight until as late as 1947.

The group in the Harz mountains were not alone: units fought on all over Germany until 1948 and were more disruptive to the Allies than has been admitted. Most of the files relating to the 'Werwolf' were destroyed as the Germans retreated. The Werwolf fighters were suspected of being involved in a sabotage plot to assassinate Field Marshal Montgomery and are now thought to have carried out 5,500 killings including the execution of many civic leaders appointed by the occupational governments. They were also believed to be behind a mass poisoning operation which killed nearly 200 Allied soldiers. Historians have discovered that the Werwolf was a terrorist army with up to 12,000 well-armed members who were given new identities and who had sworn allegiance to the movement. Armed with plastic explosives and weapons stolen from the Allies, and equipped with suicide pills in case of capture, they used a network of secret underground bunkers and buried arms caches.

The secret army operated not only in Germany but also in neighbouring Poland, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Austria and France. So strategic were their cells that the Americans used former German intelligence officers to try and reactivate those in areas controlled by Russia as the basis of an anti-Soviet underground network like the famous "Gladio Network". The Allies now admit that over 15% of the German population supported the activities of the Werwolf, much more than previously admitted.

The origins of the Werwolf can be traced as far back as 1943 when the idea of a guerrilla army was put forward as a German fall-back plan. Taking their name from the German romantic saga of the same name about 17th century guerrillas on the Luneberg Heath in Germany, Werwolf was divided into cells of 4-6 men, instructed to sabotage, kill collaborators and to promote civil unrest. Cell members were armed with small arms, hand grenades, bazookas, foot mines and plastic explosives.

One of their most successful operations was a mass poisoning programme where lethal doses of methyl were injected into alcohol. Special squads were dispatched to poison liquor and food likely to be consumed by Allied and Soviet personnel and by 1946 a total of 190 Allied soldiers died as a result with many more casualties among Russian troops. Werwolf guerrillas destroyed many major art works after they had been looted by the Allies. They also terrorised civilian traitors to try and halt co-operation with the occupational forces. They would paint red Werwolf runes - ᛋᛋ - on the doors of collaborators' homes and many civic leaders who worked for the occupational government were shot or hanged and their bodies tagged with warning notes. A Werwolf stencil of a silhouetted figure - "the sign of the dark men" - appeared in public places. So scared were the occupying forces after Montgomery's 'plane was sabotaged causing it to crash, slightly injuring him, that over 80,000 people were arrested by 1946 by the Western occupation forces and in Soviet territory, over 240,000 'subversives' were imprisoned.

Captured Werwolf members were still being sentenced to death at the end of 1948 with many Germans supporting their guerrilla actions. An Allied war correspondent wrote: "At night the Germans take pot shots at American troops, or string wires across roads, or they burn the houses of Germans who accept posts in our military government, or they booby trap ammunition dumps or motorcycles or anything that is likely to be touched. But that is at night. In the daytime we are the answer to the German prayer."

As with most things in history, the truth eventually comes out; or at least some of it. The bravery of these Werwolf fighters cannot be argued about: Many lost their lives, many being executed by the occupational government who turned a blind eye to the attacks on German civilians by both Western and Soviet soldiers. These forgotten heroes of the Werwolf fought on whilst others surrendered. The Werwolf actions forced the occupying forces to rethink their policy in Germany. In the early days after Germany's fall, they carried out blatant atrocities against the German people: wholesale rape; mass murder; theft and enforced starvation. However, they realised that their actions were causing mass resentment and the people looked on the Werwolf fighters as 'Robin Hood' types. The Allies were forced to adopt more humane methods of treatment towards the people in an attempt to neutralise Werwolf support. We at Strikeforce salute these heroes. We look forward to the day when their descendants once again take up arms in the Fatherland and once again strike fear into the hearts of the collaborators and traitors who infest their land.

ZOG DEATH SQUADS!

Below right: Mason today: no regrets

The Allies never stop spouting on about how they were the 'goody two shoes' of the Second World War, always exaggerating or fabricating German atrocities, claiming to hold the moral high ground. Yet, every year it seems, more evidence of Allied war crimes comes to light. The latest scandal which has been exposed is the use of secret 'killer squads' who tracked down German National Socialists and their families after the war, tortured them, then executed them. The victims were said to have been executed because they had committed war crimes, yet there wasn't enough evidence to even convict them at the Nuremberg War Crimes Trials, acknowledged today as a travesty of justice by all shades of political opinion. Everyone who has studied these trials will tell you they were a farce, a total show trial which led to the conviction, often resulting in the death penalty, of the defendants on trumped up charges. The Nuremberg convictions were obtained using perjured testimony, false evidence and outright fabrication. Some of those executed were convicted despite no evidence, so for the Allies to execute less prominent Germans rather than bring them to trial means there was definitely no evidence of crimes, the Allies just wanted people out of the way. One of those involved in these secret 'executions' has been named as Peter Mason, now aged 71. Race-traitor Mason, who boasts of his exploits, said that his mission started after the capture of German military records in Strasbourg concerning men who might otherwise have vanished. Scumbag Mason and his cowardly henchmen Nobby Clarke and Josef Galinsky mounted their secret missions from a converted stable in the Black Forest near Stuttgart, under the command of Major Eric Barkworth of 2 SAS who also ran other operations of a similar nature. ZOG's mercenary Mason says he was funded secretly by the War Office and with Churchill's approval.

Mason recently gloated that his favourite method was to collect National Socialists from Allied prison camps on the pretence that they were required to give evidence at the Nuremberg Trials. Mason and his cronies would then confront their victims with a file listing the atrocities they were alleged to have committed, then they would 'execute' them by strangulation or shooting. These sicko assassins would use German guns and claim their victims had shot themselves or sometimes they would shoot them in the back and claim they had been shot whilst attempting to escape. One well-known victim was Otto Ortgies, a Hitler Youth leader: Mason and his evil cohorts traced him to a hotel in Munich where they shot him dead in cold blood. Mason, who now lives in America but wants to keep his address secret, often gloats about his killing orgies, stating he has no regrets about being a cold blooded assassin. When interviewed lately, Mason stated: "I am proud of what I did." What a guy eh? With Mason openly confessing to his crimes in his new book, will he be tried for these serial murders? Or will the Crown Prosecution Service be too busy chasing nazi 'war criminals'? Mason is not alone in confessing, not too long ago another British operation to kill and torture Germans was exposed with the murderers openly bragging about their activities on a TV documentary. So far they haven't been charged either. I wonder why?

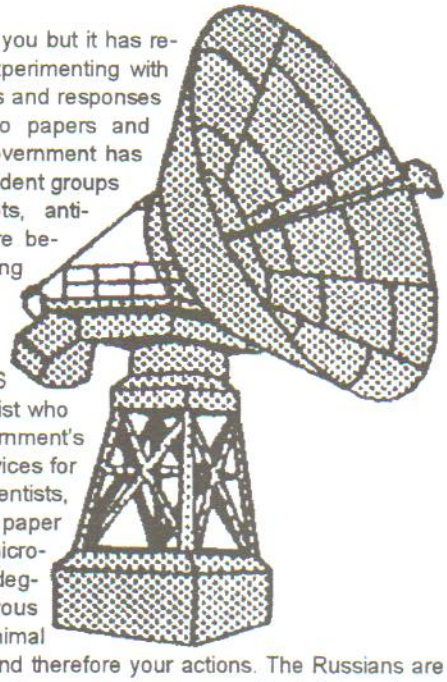
BIG BROTHER'S MICROWAVING YOU



This may sound a bit far-fetched to most of you but it has recently come to light that ZOG has been experimenting with microwaves that can alter behaviour patterns and responses of people exposed to them. According to papers and documents obtained in America, the US government has used this dangerous technology against dissident groups such as environmental protesters, patriots, anti-government groups, etc. Mental patients are believed to have been used as guinea pigs along with some prison inmates.

The history of these mind weapons goes back a number of years to the days of the Cold War when both the Soviets and Americans rushed to perfect these methods of mind control. Of course, the fact that these microwaves are harmful to humans and other living creatures doesn't concern the US government in the slightest and they have stepped up their experiments in recent years. One scientist who worked on the development of these weapons was Eddan Byrd who actually worked in the US government's Office of Non-Lethal Weapons. In 1981 he was commissioned to develop these electromagnetic devices for purposes including riot control, clandestine operations and hostage removal. Byrd, along with other scientists, turned against the government and its use of these mind-control microwaves against its citizens. In a paper written by Byrd, he discusses the health effects on animals that were experimented on using the microwaves they intended for humans. Animals that were exposed to these waves "...exhibited a drastic degradation of intelligence later in life, indicating very definite irreversible damage to the central nervous system." Byrd also stated that "...at a certain frequency and power intensity, they could make the animal purr, lay down, roll over." Clearly the US government now has the power to control your thoughts and therefore your actions. The Russians are believed to have gone much further, experimenting on soldiers with remarkable results. The implications for us as anti-government activists are huge and, indeed, for the population in general. When the government want to do something that would turn the people against them they'll just zap us with these microwaves and we will remain in a state induced slumber, going along with whatever they want. How would they administer these mind control techniques I hear you ask? Well, most people have TV sets don't they? It's also no secret that TV producers and advertising companies have been using subliminal messages to put things into people's minds for years now; just imagine if they produce TV sets that could transmit these microwaves (if they don't already). You could be sitting watching Emmerdale Farm and unknown to you these microwaves could be scrambling your brain without your knowledge and replacing any negative thoughts with 'love the system', 'the government is always right', 'you shall obey', etc., etc. It would be scary if you read about it in a sci-fi novel but it IS going on in real life, to what extent we can only guess, but one thing is for sure, ZOG isn't going to waste millions of dollars experimenting with this form of mind control if they don't intend using it some time!

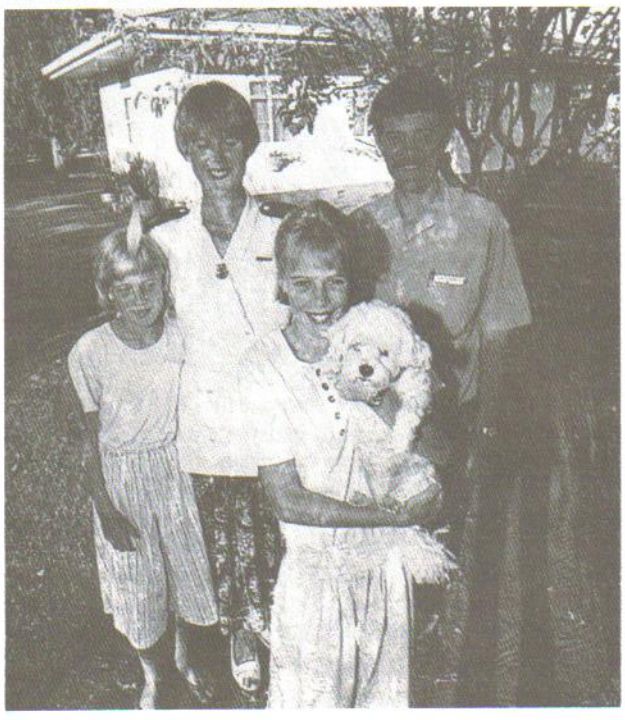
WHITE MEN ARE DOING IT FOR THEMSELVES

With South Africa now firmly in the control of the diamond mining companies, er - sorry, the Black majority, things for Whites look pretty grim. Crime is rife, unemployment is skyrocketing and the working-class Whites are rapidly becoming second-class citizens. Some, however, still possess the White man's spirit which built South Africa and are ready to start again, rather than toe the ANC line.

Several 'Whites Only' settlements have begun to spring up across South Africa. One such settlement is called Orania and contains 180 houses which were originally built for construction workers that built a nearby dam on the Orange river. The dam fell into disuse as soon as it was completed and now, for £6,000 to £10,000, the new pioneers, the modern Voortrekkers, can buy leases to these run down properties. Any Whites wishing to purchase a lease must sign a declaration stating that they promise to uphold White ideals and culture. The use of non-White labour is strictly prohibited. By declaring this, residents of Orania are consciously parodying the original Voortrekkers in their belief in self-reliance and freedom won through hard work and sacrifice - even to the extent that some of them wear the 19th century costumes of the original Voortrekkers on special holidays.

The first residents of Orania took the town back from the ravages of time and ever encroaching semi-desert of Karoo. They gave clothing and a month's food to the 68 Black folk resident in the old 'Kaffir' section of the town, put them on lorries and transported them out of the area for good. Jobs that are usually done by Blacks across the rest of South Africa are done by Whites in Orania as they aim to be totally self-sufficient. Most of the poor Whites who have moved there work mainly in the small businesses that are springing up or on adjacent farms which have sent their Black labour packing and instead only employ Whites. Several other small White communities have also developed in the area as the steady trickle of Whites flow into the area from the Black cities. The leaders of these communities are expecting this trickle to turn into thousands, even millions, as more Whites become disillusioned with the current political climate and seek refuge in this White promised land. What will the Black's reaction be? If enough Whites move there, they'll most probably just leave them to it rather than engage in a full-scale bloody showdown, and who knows? In a few years time an all-White nation could be formed.



What Orania shows is that Whites can be self-sufficient; they don't have to fight the Blacks or ill treat them, the Whites of Orania just want to live in peace and by themselves - who has the right to deny them that?

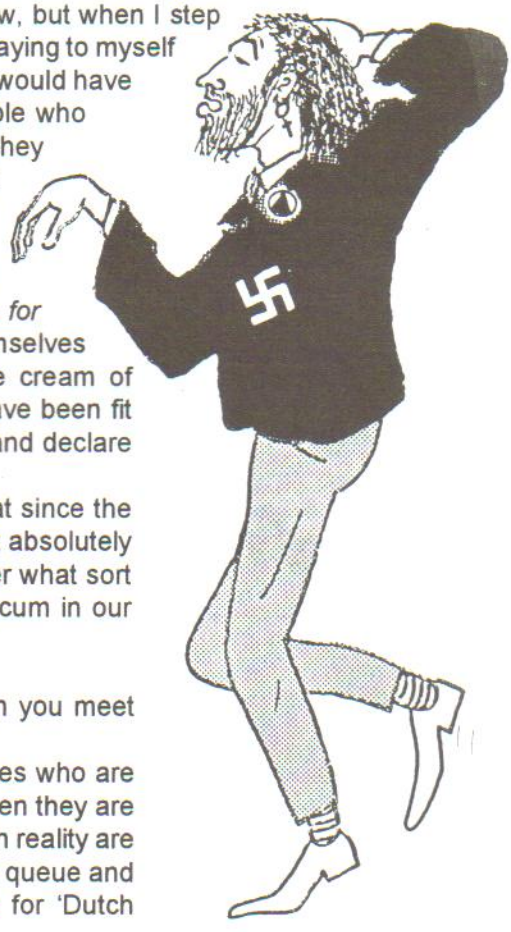
THEY AIN'T ALRIGHT JUST BECAUSE THEY'RE WHITE



I've been involved in the so-called 'right-wing' for a number of years now, but when I step back and look at our so-called movement, especially more recently, I can't help saying to myself "Why am I surrounded by so many 'misfits'?" I'm sure that if you are honest, you would have to agree with me, so let's take a look back at the Third Reich. Then, the people who flocked to the National Socialist cause were young idealists, fighting for what they believed in: their race and their nation. Self-sacrifice was commonplace and heroism was an everyday occurrence, both before the victory in 1933 when the Brownshirts fought the reds, losing over 25,000 men in the streets alone, and afterwards on the battlefields of World War 2 when legions of men from every European nation were decimated time and time again in the Crusade for Europe. You just cannot compare these men with the dregs that call themselves 'right-wingers' today. National Socialists then were the elite of our race, the cream of European youth. Most of the so-called 'right-wingers' around today wouldn't have been fit to dig latrine pits for the Waffen SS yet they claim to represent the White race and declare themselves to be the so-called vanguard.

Why is there such a difference I hear you ask? The problem now is that since the war the pro-White groups have been desperate for the numbers and will accept absolutely anyone just because they're White and call themselves racists. It doesn't matter what sort of lowlife they are as long as they are 'our way'. Obviously, not everyone is scum in our movement so let's take a look at the sort of people attracted to it.

1/ The genuine idealists: These are few and far between, it's refreshing when you meet people who genuinely believe in the cause and are normal decent people.
2/ The cowards: These unfortunately make up the bulk of the 'right-wing'. Blokes who are nothing by themselves join up to be part of a gang, give it the right large one when they are at a Nationalist event, sticking the boot in when the numbers are on our side but in reality are the sort of blokes who would watch a couple of spades push in front of them in a queue and do nothing about it, just look away. You all know the sort; without the beer for 'Dutch courage', they're nothing.
3/ The inadequates and losers: Again the 'right' is full of these types. They join because no-one else will have them. They don't fit in with any 'normal' groups of people so they turn to the group that accepts anyone - the 'right-wing' where they have instant friends and drinking buddies and because there are so many other inadequates they fit in perfectly.
4/ The faggots: Because of the nature of the movement which is comprised of a lot of young blokes, queers tend to be attracted to it for devious reasons.
5/ The sickos and weirdoes: These are the sort of freaks who believe in the Hitler=Evil equation that is spread by the media and because they want to be 'evil' they latch on to us. These types are usually involved in 'Satanism', cults, paedophilia, you name it. Luckily these are small in number but always prove to be the most embarrassing when they are exposed in the press, etc. and we are all tarred with same brush. These types aren't National Socialists: if they hadn't infiltrated the 'right-wing' they would be in some sort of cult. Our enemies love deviants such as these, often encouraging them to join us.
6/ The drunken bums: These sort of blokes are in their element in the 'right-wing' because most of it is just a big drinking club.

So there it is: You may not want to hear it but it's true. The 'right-wing' accepts ANYONE - it has NO standards. We set ourselves up as though we're better than everyone else and talk about the general population as though they're all scum and we are somehow above them. Well the truth is that percentage wise we most probably have ten times the number of scumbags in our movement than exist in the so-called 'non-racist' general population.

The 'right' has two choices: either it cleans up its act and introduces some standards so it might actually attract some normal, decent people or it carries on being a freak show for society to laugh at on the TV. Personally, I don't want it to be the latter and I doubt if you do. So, it's up to the decent activists to give the freakshow a wide birth and clean up our movement - dump the misfits, let 'em join the NSM!

WATCH OUT FOR THE MEN WITH DODGY HANDSHAKES

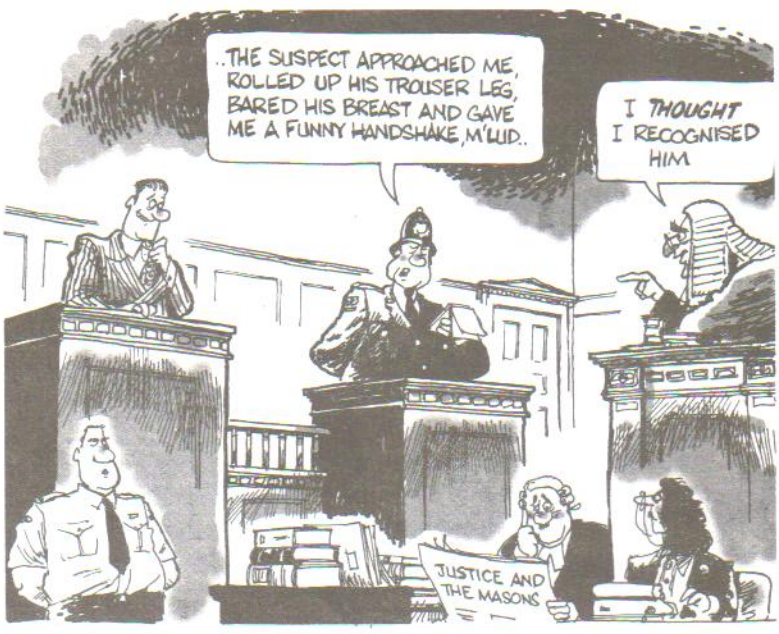
A masonic candidate prepared for initiation

Have you seen the recent press coverage of the Freemasons doing the rounds in the national press? The main cause of the recent interest is a House of Commons Select Committee investigation into police corruption and Masonic influence. The investigation's main concern is the fact that over 160 police members have been involved in a series of scandals and major cases of corruption in recent years. The investigation is most probably just a sham to calm public fears: how can members of the House of Commons investigate Freemasons? You can bet your life on it that a fair amount of the house are secret 'trouser leg lifters', so it's hardly going to be impartial is it?

Former senior police officers that have been masons include George Churchill-Coleman, head of the Anti-Terrorist Branch and Malcolm Campbell, a former head of Special Branch and intelligence at the Yard. It is accepted that at least 20% of police officers are masons, in fact, New Scotland Yard has its OWN Masonic lodge known as Lodge 9179 and called the Manor of St James with over 200 members!

The masons claim to be just a club like a golf club or rugby club. but the truth is very different.

Throughout history the masons have been involved in many conspiracies, influential in: starting wars (e.g. World War One which began after the Austrian Arch Duke Ferdinand was assassinated by Mason Gavilo Princip), political murders and assassinations and they've subverted the press. In fact there is not one level in society, especially in the government, they have not got some form of influence in. Although there are different degrees to Freemasonry, the ones at the top are working to a secret agenda which is certainly not in the interests of normal people or society. You will find that most of the 'One-World Governmenters' are masons: every government in the world is rife with them. Even the British Royal Family is heavily involved in Freemasonry. In effect, Freemasons probably control the world or are in a position to exert pressure, usually through bribery, on those who do. Hitler's National Socialists warned us of the danger of Freemasonry and so did Mussolini. Various Popes throughout the ages have alerted people to the dangers of these 'secret societies'. Freemasonry is behind the move towards the 'World Government' we all fear! The crowning of their 'World King' could be sooner than we think. Be warned!

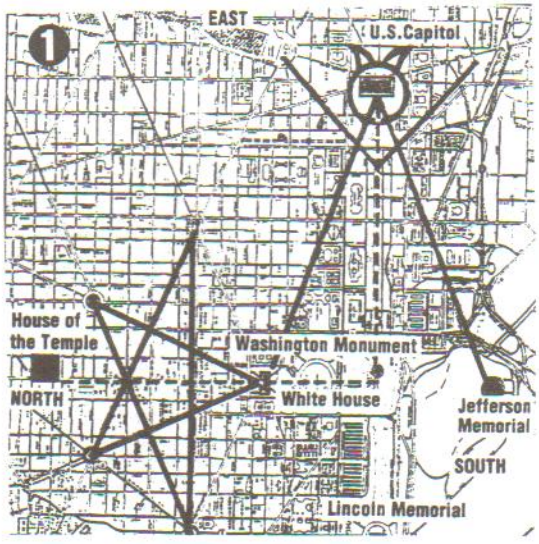


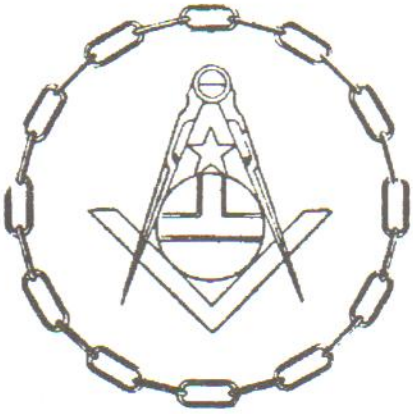
..THE SUSPECT APPROACHED ME, ROLLED UP HIS TROUSER LEG, BARED HIS BREAST AND GAVE ME A FUNNY HANDSHAKE, M'LUD..
I THOUGHT I RECOGNISED HIM
JUSTICE AND THE MASONS

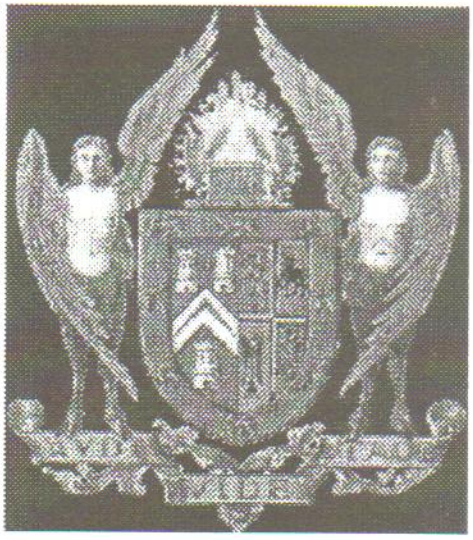
Just a little point we would like to mention: Commander Wall and Detective Madden from the International Organised Crime Squad who led several operations against C18 were both Freemasons, as we suspect were other members of this elite New Scotland Yard unit. Who do they hop around on one leg with at their local lodge? It could be prosecutors, politicians, lawyers - we just don't know do we? - And that's the point!

Right: Researchers have linked the seals on the US dollar bill with the freemasons.

Presidents and other leading figures in American history who were known masons include:
George Washington, first US President; James Buchanan, US President; Gerald Ford, US President; Benjamin Franklin, one of thirteen Masonic signers of the US Constitution; James A. Garfield, US President; Reverend Billy Graham; J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director; Warren G. Harding, US President; Jesse Jackson; General Douglas MacArthur; Charles Lindbergh, pro-German anti-war campaigner; William McKinley, US President; James Monroe, US President; James Knox Polk, US President; Franklin D. Roosevelt, US President; Andrew Jackson, US President; Theodore Roosevelt, US President; William Howard Taft, US President; Harry S. Trueman, US President; Governor George C. Wallace, former darling of the 'racist right'; Ronald Reagan, US President; George Bush, US President; Louis Farrakhan (??!); Bill Clinton, present US President; Joseph Smith & Brigham Young, early Mormon leaders.







Above left: When leading Freemasons helped design Washington D.C., they chose to incorporate several Masonic symbols into the streets of the city. Note the Satanic Pentagon.

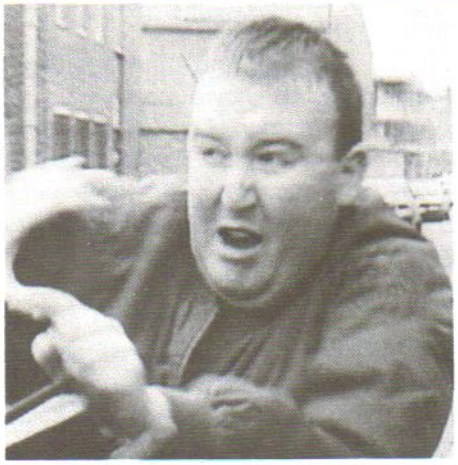
THE PRINCIPLES OF FREEMASONRY

1/ The promotion of internationalism and the destruction of modern nation-states.
2/ To accomplish this destruction, the Craft seeks to eliminate marriage as a binding contract, thus attacking the fundamental unit of the nation-state - the family.
3/ The dissolution of all power relations in society.
4/ The removal of the right to private property.
5/ The promotion of a one-world race through encouraged miscegenation.
6/ The creation of a World Government led by the elite of Freemasonry.

END OF THE ROAD FOR THE 5ft TOAD!



Supergrass Sargent

After years of grassing, lying and outrageous treachery, Charlie Sargent's Special Branch career finally came to an abrupt halt as he was sentenced to life imprisonment at Chelmsford Crown Court on Wednesday 21st January 1998. Sargent was found guilty of luring an innocent man, Chris Castle, to his house in Harlow so that his treacherous sidekick Martin 'Double-Cross', who was lying in wait, could plunge a 9-inch kitchen knife into the unaware Chris's back, leaving him to die in the mud. Until now we haven't been able to go into detail about the case because of the legal implications if we did; i.e. Sargent and Cross could have used it as an excuse to get their case thrown out on a technicality. So in order for justice to take its course, we had to remain silent as Sargent and his bullshit brother Steve spread their lies and slandered the deceased Chris Castle in order to hide their shame. Cast your mind back to the murder on February 10th 1997, Steve Sargent put out a statement on the internet that night claiming that poor Charlie's house had been attacked by men with guns, etc. Over the next twelve months their barrage of lies and disinformation was stepped up; ridiculous claims were made, raging from six gunmen attacking poor Charlie's house to three men; that Chris was stabbed in the chest in a violent struggle as Martin Cross battled to save the lives of Charlie's children while brave Kelly Cross threw herself on top of the 'blood splattered' kids to save their lives. Lie after lie was spread by Steve Sargent in his tatty little magazines and pamphlets, much to the distress of Chris's family who had to wait for a full year before the truth could be made public in OPEN court. Of course, the press also joined in with the spreading of disinformation, as did Special Branch, all combining together. The newspapers printed stories the day after the murder claiming that three men attacked the house and Chris was stabbed in the chest - blatant lies! Whoever fed the press this garbage was obviously ashamed of the facts weren't they? Do you also remember that soon after the murder, Cross and Sargent were telling everyone that they were victims of a murderous attack and that the truth would come out in court and everyone should be there to see the TRUTH come out? Well, the TRUTH did come out but strangely, just before the trial began, Sargent and Cross sent out letters saying they DIDN'T want anyone at the trial! WHY?

Well it's obvious; because if any of Sargent's cronies had sat through the trial they would have seen what we all saw: Sargent's lies and treachery laid bare for everyone present to see. So it doesn't matter what the loser Steve Sargent and his bunch of muppets say in their magazines because over 45 people attended the court during the trial to:

1/ Show the 'Toad' Charlie Sargent their disgust.

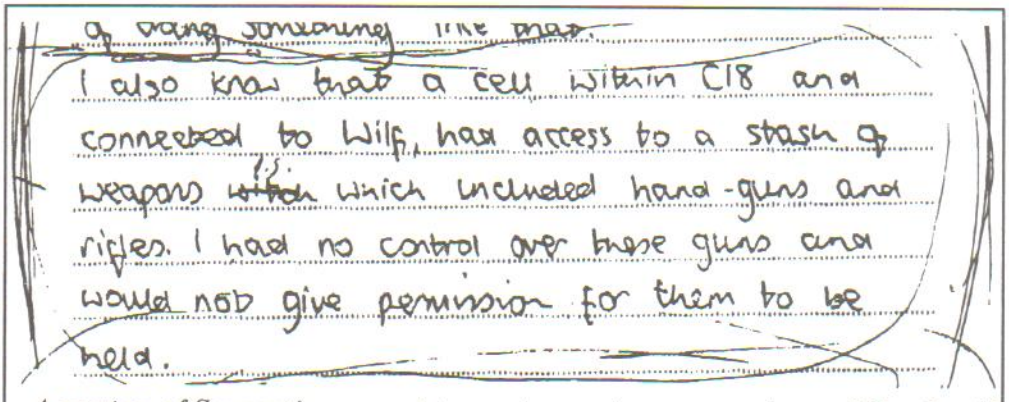
2/ To see the truth for themselves.

There were people who came from all over the country: Wales, The North of England, Scotland, West London, South London, East London and North London. All these people went back to their areas knowing the truth and telling all their mates. THE TRUTH CANNOT BE HIDDEN! In the trial itself, Sargent looked exactly what he was: a sad little inadequate loser. He had let his hair grow long and greasy; he wore an ill-fitting suit and 'Woody Allen' style thick-rimmed glasses. What happened to the 'Terror Machine' eh Charlie? During the trial it emerged how, after being expelled in disgrace from C18, Sargent had planned the murder of Chris Castle in order to gain some cred. after being left a laughing stock in Harlow after his expulsion. The court heard how Sargent had arranged for Chris Castle to drop off some of Sargent's work tools there. These tools had been left around at Kev Johnson's flat in Harlow after Sargent had tiled Kev's bathroom. They came into Mark Atkinson's possession after he cleared Kev Johnson's flat out for him. The tools were just among all the gear cleared out, not stolen, as Sargent had been telling everyone. The court heard how Atkinson had tried to take the tools back to Sargent once, before the murder, but the cowardly Sargent had been too scared to open the door to Atki and pretended he wasn't in even though he could be seen through the window. Because Sargent was too spineless to open the door to anyone in C18, it was arranged that Chris Castle, who was known to everyone as a really nice bloke and not a troublemaker, would drop the tools off to Sargent and also pick up some money from Sargent to give to Martin 'Double-Cross'. This money Sargent owed to a Belgian, who owed money to C18, so rather than send it to Belgium, then back to England, Sargent was to hand it to over to C18 who would then take it as a gift to Martin 'Double-Cross' to pay for his father's funeral. The truth about what Sargent said to get Cross to be at his house and stab Chris in the back will most probably never be known. This is probably one of the most sickening aspects of the case: That Cross stabbed the man who was picking up money for him as a gift in the BACK. It's unbelievable!

On the day of the murder, the court heard how Chris drove to Sargent's Harlow home and dropped Wilf Browning down the road because it was agreed that he was to go to the house ALONE to make the exchange. Will wouldn't go to the house for two reasons: 1/ He was still friends with Sargent's girlfriend Maxine and so was his missus and didn't want to cause a scene in front of her and the kids.

2/ Because Sargent was such a coward, Wilf knew that if he went to the door, the 'Fat Fuhrer' wouldn't open it again and it would be ANOTHER wasted journey and we'd have to listen to Sargent's sob stories about the 'stolen tools' again.

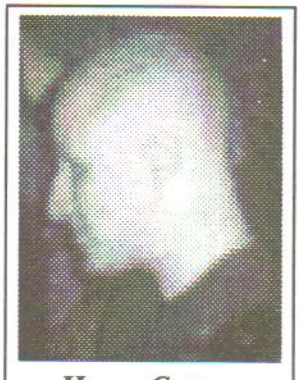
After dropping Wilf off, Chris drove into the car park at the bottom of Sargent's drive. He knocked on Sargent's door, then both he and Sargent walked to the car to get the tools, Sargent talking and smiling all the time as the cowardly scumbag lured Chris into their trap. After handing over the tools, Chris was stabbed in the back by Double-Cross who was hiding out of sight. The knife went in nine inches with such force that the wound was deeper than the blade's length with the hilt of the knife being buried inside Chris's back. Chris then ran out of the house into the car park and staggered into the road. He collapsed into Wilf's arms as Wilf came running as soon as he had heard Chris's desperate pleas for help. The jury was told how Wilf shouted up to Cross and Sargent "What the f have you done?" after they had ran back up the alley realising Wilf was in the car park. Cross shouted back from about 60 yards away: "He's a casualty of war!" and Wilf retorted: "Get a f ambulance!" Sargent'sreply to that was: "F him, let him rot!" What a man eh? The court was told how Wilf, with the help of a female passer-by, stopped a taxi and dragged Chris in it and took him to hospital. Chris died shortly after arriving. The court heard how Browning was arrested at the hospital first for stabbing Chris! It was then revealed that Cross was charged with murder the next day after he confessed to stabbing the unarmed Chris in the back. The court was told how both Cross and Sargent made taped interviews and written statements to the police in order to secure the conviction of Wilf for the crime. Wilf, in accordance with C18's policy, refused to make a police statement or answer questions. Wilf remained silent for around a month until he had spoken to Chris's wife, family and friends and comrades around the country who all urged him to tell the police the truth. After consulting his lawyer, Wilf decided to tell the real version of events. Firstly, because Chris couldn't speak for himself, and secondly because Sargent and Cross had been so keen to make statements against him in order to have him imprisoned. He now had no option but to refute their lies or go to jail on the word of two murdering grasses.



of doing something like that.
I also know that a cell within C18 and connected to Wilf, had access to a stash of weapons which included hand-guns and rifles. I had no control over these guns and would not give permission for them to be held.

A section of Sargent's many statements grassing on members of Combat 18

During the course of the trial, Sargent's and Cross's lies about self-defence were blown out of the water by witnesses, forensics, but most importantly by their OWN statements. They had been so quick to try to frame Wilf, their statements were full of obvious lies and contradictions. The best their defence team could do was try and discredit Wilf, and it looked as though he was on trial. Sargent repeated what he had said in his statement in the witness box: Wilf had guns and that Wilf wanted C18 to be a terrorist outfit but he wanted it to be a legal political group. He also talked about the 'Denmark bombs' and that "One of Wilf's gang shot a policeman." Then, in a attempt to get the case thrown out of court, Wilf was ordered into the witness box to face the jury (despite not being charged with any offence or convicted) to answer questions about an alleged attack on Herve Guttoso, one of Sargent's cronies, in Chelmsford High Street. The defence team alleged that Wilf was interfering with a defence witness, etc. Guttoso made a statement to the police against Wilf and Darren Wells, saying how he had been the victim of a vicious assault, etc. What actually happened was that Guttoso rode towards Wilf and several others on his push-bike and was dragged off. Wilf then gave him a few punches on the nose, nothing bad, just a few slaps. What did Herve, the big body-building nazi do? He went crying to the police, then drove around in the back of a police car and pointed Wilf, etc. out to the Old Bill claiming that he had been attacked by Wilf and threatened not to appear in court for Sargent. In court Wilf said that he didn't know Guttoso was a defence witness and that it was just a minor scuffle and that Guttoso only went to the police in order to discredit Wilf as a witness.



Herve Guttoso

Gavin Hockley

Guttoso then went in the box and contradicted his police statement. The judge and jury easily saw through this pathetic attempt to discredit Wilf, in fact they laughed at the French nancy who didn't do Sargent and Cross any favours at all with his testimony. Other witnesses for Sargent and Cross were Mark Skyner who told the court Wilf was going to kill Charlie Sargent, etc., etc. and Gavin Hockley who went in the box and grassed Wilf up for hitting an Anti-Nazi League member three years ago, doing other reds and having guns and other weapons. He also stated that he had two black children so we had the spectacle of Hockley the race-mixer grassing up National Socialists in court for doing reds - unbelievable. At the end, the jury just didn't believe all the lies from Cross and Sargent and rightly found them both guilty of murder.

It's taken a year for the truth to be made public and if anyone doubts what has been said about Sargent and Cross, then they should have been there to see for themselves. In his sick little mind, Sargent most probably likes being labled a murderer, he probably thinks it's going to give him a bit of cred. The reality is however that he will go down in history as the sneaky one who lured Chris Castle to his death: he didn't even do the dastardly act himself, he wound someone else up to do it: 'The story of his life' so exposed in court as a liar, a GRASS and a coward: a sad sight, denying what he was and trying to grovel to the jury. He will now go down for life, the sad little man with no pride, no honour. No doubt he will be bleating about a big conspiracy against him but the facts are: The jury was all White; the trial was in ESSEX, a racist area; the judge bent over backwards to give him an over fair trial; the jury looked like they were nearly all working-class; the victim was a racist; the defendants were racist; the jury had no favourites; they could see the truth. The facts and the evidence were there: Sargent and Cross didn't have a defence, their lies would have been laughable if it wasn't for the fact that they had stabbed an innocent man in the BACK. They tried to frame Wilf and more importantly they wrecked a whole families life, even laughing in court at Chris's wife Tanya as she wept constantly and was forced to listen to the grisly way in which the man she had been with for fourteen years was murdered. The look of contentment on their faces when Tanya ran out of the courtroom screaming and crying was sickening. What scum! In a National Socialist state they would be hung by the neck until they were dead. Instead they'll serve between 12 and twenty years whilst Chris's family have the rest of their lives to live with only the memory of Chris. You've been exposed for what you are Sargent and we promise you this: Whatever lifer jail you go to, your statement will follow and everyone will know what you are YOU FAT BACKSTABBING GRASS!

It's ironic that Sargent was shown mercy by Wilf who felt embarrassed for the fat mug after seeing him crying when confronted about his bullshit. Both he and his gutless brother Steve were offered the chance to sort it out like men but they both bottled out. Instead we had the spectacle of the two misfits sitting around their Chelmsford flat, heads facing the floor, not having the courage to admit what they had been saying behind Wilf's back, not having the guts to go outside and sort it out, either by fists or knives. Wilf openly laughed at Sargent about his interview where he said that he challenged people who slagged him off to a knife fight to the death. Well, he was given the chance but he bottled it as Wilf said to him "You're pathetic, look at yourself, you're meant to be the big terrorist leader." So there you have it: this fat trembling coward was shown mercy because he was so pathetic. So what did he do? He plotted the death of Chris Castle, then tried to use the police to put Wilf out of the game. What he did was disgusting, cowardly and is unforgivable. He overstepped the line: he will have to pay the price for his treachery, but for the time being he will languish in jail.

Cooke Oliver

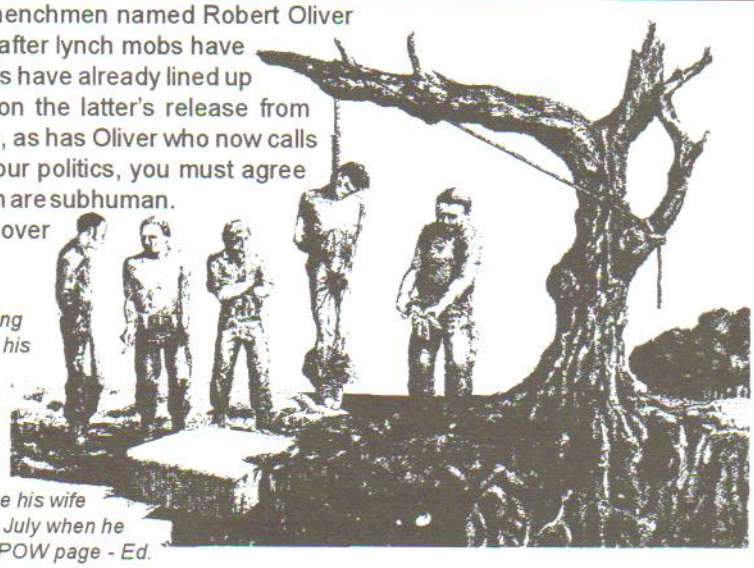
If, like myself and most normal people, you are disgusted by the existence of filth known as paedophiles, or 'bacons' as they are known in jail, then you too will be sickened to hear that the self-proclaimed 'King of the Bacons', Sidney Cooke, has just been given his earliest possible release date! To think that this evil scumbag is to be released at all is unbelievable but true. A lot of you out there will probably remember when he was convicted, as his crimes received full coverage by the media. 'King Bacon' was the leader of a really bestial little gang of perverts who preyed on young boys. He and his gang were convicted of the manslaughter of one 14-year-old kid, although police believe that Cooke and his associates are responsible for the murder and sexual assault of dozens of children in and around the Hackney estate where they lived. One of 'King Bacon's' evil henchmen named Robert Oliver has already been released but is now under police protection after lynch mobs have tried to string him up wherever he went. Council housing officials have already lined up a 'love nest' for Oliver and Cooke when they are re-united on the latter's release from prison. Cooke has already changed his name to Sidney Lomas, as has Oliver who now calls himself Robert Lee, in order to escape attention. Whatever your politics, you must agree that crimes against kids are sick and the people who commit them are subhuman. These sickos only deserve to hang or, better still, to be handed over to their victim's parents. End of!



NO NONCES HERE!

We have just heard that Cooke has been released from jail and is now living under police protection, most probably in the area where he committed his heinous crimes. At the same time as the Cooke story hit the headlines, POW Mark Atkinson was refused home leave as his release to spend a weekend with his family 'would be against the public interest'. Also the fact that his home isn't far away from the BNP HQ was a reason to refuse him his human rights??!! It seems ZOG are prepared to allow a convicted paedophile back on the streets whilst they deny a family man his right to see his wife and kids. Mark still stands defiantly and he'll have the last laugh on the 24th July when he is properly released. Don't forget to drop him a line, his address is on the POW page - Ed.

Above: Peter Mandleson with Mickey Mouse (also believed to be a Labour cabinet member). Behind is the Dome under construction.

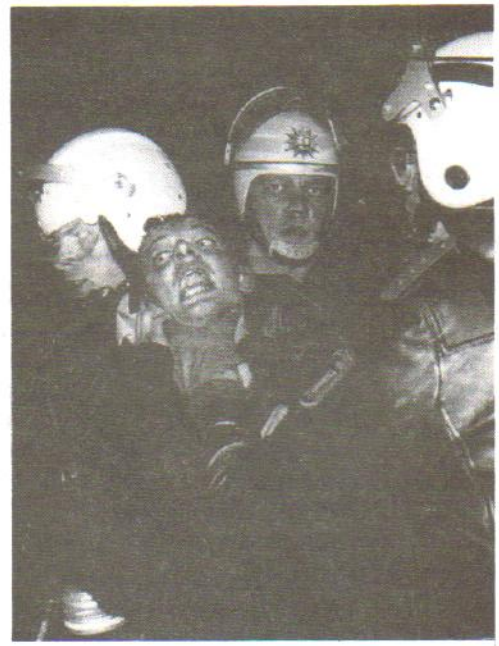
I don't know about you but the coming Millenium isn't anything to celebrate for us dissidents, all it means is that we're going to be even closer to a one-world government; nation states dissolved and the people existing as mindless automatons in a cosmopolitan capitalist slave empire. The year 2000 - 2001 could be the year that the secret government intends to reveal itself, proclaiming a 'World King' and using the United Nations to enforce their New World Order. Like lemmings, the people will flock to the Millenium celebrations around the world but what is there to celebrate? Why is the British government wasting huge resources on crappy ideas such as the Millenium Dome in Greenwich? This dome is now under construction and is set to cost the taxpayer £780 million to construct and another £100 million to advertise and promote! Who the hell gave 'em the go-ahead to build such an eyesore? Well, it turns out the brains behind the operation is former Communist Party member Peter Mandleson, now a member of Tony Blair's cabinet going under the title of 'Minister without portfolio'. This white elephant dome has now been dubbed 'Mandyworld' after Mandleson took a few tips from Mickey Mouse in Florida and we are promised that the contents will be loads of crappy items posing as 'modern art exhibitions' for the arty farty classes to walk around and even join in some of the 'virtual reality' attractions. It's doubtful if they'll have to mix with us 'proles' as the entry fee will be at least £20 a head and most ordinary folk wouldn't bother going even if it was free. I personally think that the soppy red Mandelson should walk around some of our run down hospitals and inner cities and get a tase of 'actual reality' and explain why £900 million is being wasted on this ridiculous dome, that none of us could give a toss about, whilst people are dying on NHS waiting lists. We'd all be interested to hear his reasons.

NEW STASI - DIFFERENT NAME: SAME OLD OPPRESSION



Just as you thought it couldn't get any tougher in Deutschland, the occupational government unveiled their new weapon against dissidents in a blaze of publicity. The new police commando units which have been created to specifically target 'White extremists' have been hailed as a spectacular success by all those opposed to our people's rebirth. Around 30 people were arrested in the first week of these new units' operation. These special squads are known as Mega Troops: short for 'Mobile Units Against Violence and Xenophobia'. Although the Stasi hit squads have changed their name and uniform, they are still operating the same old Soviet helicopters, ready to pounce on anyone refusing to toe the occupational government's line. These new units have been established by the Social Democrat controlled State Government of Brandenburg in former East Germany to stamp out National Socialism once and for all. According to press releases by ZOG, the first operation carried out by the Mega Units was the harrassment of youths gathering for survival training at a lake district outside Berlin where 11 people were arrested and weapons and NS regalia were seized.

This special unit in Brandenburg is comprised of 45 specialist officers who are usually dressed in plain clothes. Their emblem is a swastika being crushed underfoot by Brandenburg's state symbol, a red eagle! So much for the Wall coming down eh? In their first week they swooped on over 300 people and 85 vehicles in a blatant show of government oppression. Out of the 23 people actually detained, the new units boast that they are confidant that at least ONE of these arrests will lead to a prosecution! So out of 300 people and 85 vehicles, only one person is possibly guilty of anything and he will probably be stitched up as well. Mass operations like this are the sort of open harassment and intimidation that would have made the Soviets proud.

German intelligence sources have disclosed that they know of over 45,000 NS extremists in the former communist sector, with Brandenburg being a main base. Axel Ludders, a government spokesman, claimed "We know where these groups are and how they spend their free time." Free time? Obviously there is no such thing as free time in Germany is there?

Germany now has the highest unemployment rate since the war, the "youth are getting restless": fed up of the phoney politicians, fed up at being treated like dirt and fed up of the treacherous government!

WILL DEUTSCHLAND RISE AGAIN? WE HOPE SO!

DON'T LET THEM GRIND YOU DOWN

Being subjected to interrogation is not as unlikely as most people think it is. And even if you are not interrogated yourself by ZOG's police, you could unwittingly be dragged in as a result of what a friend or an associate has said as a result of him or her being interrogated. So it pays to have a good understanding of the subject.

The first rule is not to allow yourself to be influenced by the interrogator's manner: They are trained in the art of being nice as a means of extracting information. Inside, they are cold and callous and whether they get the information from you by beating you half to death, or by pouring you cups of coffee and offering you fags is of only academic interest to them.

The oldest trick in the book is the most successful: The interrogator will tell you that you may as well confess because so and so has already spilled the beans. Such a claim is usually a lie but they make it sound convincing by repeating useless bits of information, which they know already, and making assumptions that are relevant. Don't fall for it. Shrug and maintain your denials. No matter how sensible they dress a 'confession' up to be; never fall for it. Remember that you are being interrogated for just one reason. They want the knowledge that is in your mind to be theirs.

The hot and cold technique is another old favourite. One of your interrogators will be a pig-nasty bastard who will give you a really rough time. When you are at your lowest ebb, his oppo' will pile on the kindness and at such times he will seem like a real friend to you. Very often, the nasty interrogator will actually leave the room on some pretext; going to the loo perhaps. While he is gone, his opposite number will confide in you what a crazy no-good son-of-a-bitch he is and will probably take the opportunity to tell you how he really sympathises with your cause and admires you sticking to your guns.

Psychologically, you are at your weakest at such times. If you can recognise such tactics as these, you can hold out and win through while lesser men cave in - and do their time.

The golden rule is to say absolutely nothing, no matter what inducements are offered and regardless of all threats.

Interrogators are trained in the art of repetition. It may seem meaningless to you but it is wearing you down. You get pissed off hearing the same old questions but still they are repeated. Show the same resilience as the interrogator does and get him pissed off. Try to appear as though you are enjoying the repetition and that will help to destroy his mind instead of yours.

Another trick used by your interrogator will be to appear to minimise your offence by saying that everyone is doing it. All the kids are spraying up slogans - it's not that bad he'll tell you. Don't fall for it. The magistrates or judge will not share his opinion.

Watch out for the 'subject's file' gimmick. A manila file will be produced. It will look bulky and you will be able to see your name written on it. You'll think; 'My God, have they got all this on me?' and it won't do your mental defences any good at all. Again, it's a trick. The paperwork inside has almost certainly got nothing to do with you.

Then there is the 'Heaven and Hell' technique in which the interrogator will paint the darkest picture possible of your future but if you co-operate, then he will personally ensure an easy ride. The deal looks good to a desperate man in a desperate situation, but it is an illusion.

Playing the tough guy in a physical situation isn't acting smart. Don't stay on your feet merely to show them how tough you are or how contemptuous you are of them, it will only make them hit harder. If there is a few of them hitting you; drop and wriggle towards a corner. There, only one and not two or three can hit you at the same time. Play 'dead' or 'badly hurt' and roll on to your stomach. That way you will protect your rib cage, private parts, stomach, etc. At the same time, keep your chin down and your elbows should be tight against your body to protect your kidneys.

Never mention an associate's name. To do so won't do you any good, it will only make things worse for you because it will give rise to more questions. And of course, it will not do your associate or his family any good either.

Disorientation of the subject is always part of the technique. You can expect to be placed in solitary confinement in a dirty stinking cell that will be either freezing or boiling hot to prevent you sleeping and it will usually either be pitch dark or with a blinding light.

Expect the worst. Then you won't be disappointed and you'll be better able to take it -and survive.

Remember - if you open your mouth, you can only drop yourself in the shit or worse still compromise your comrades who are still free. Surviving interrogation intact is all about your attitude and state of mind. Once arrested, get it into your head that 'that's it' - you're out of the game, you're going down and condition yourself for the worst. Your sole aim in life from now on is to remain quiet and to make sure that you don't drop others in it. If they have enough evidence to charge you they will, whether you talk or not. If they haven't got enough evidence then you can only give them some by opening your mouth. If they have nothing then they will let you go, unless of course they're going to stitch you up and fabricate evidence. If they do this there is nothing you can do about it anyway but: STAY QUIET and KEEP UP THE RESISTANCE.

CO-INTEL-PRO - WE WERE WARNED

Those of you who read the previous issue of Strikeforce will recall our article concerning the US government's Counter Intelligence Programme (Co-Intel-Pro) used to destroy dissident groups. One comrade who read our article sent us a copy of the September 1975 issue (#87) of Spearhead magazine containing an article reproduced from the US Thunderbolt newspaper which backs up our own. The sad thing is that we were warned about Co-Intel-Pro over 20 years ago by John Tyndall's magazine but we still fell for it hook, line and sinker over the last five years. Looking back it's no surprise that it was J.T. who first tried to alert people about state agent Sargent and the mayhem he was causing in the pro-White movement.

How FBI 'CO-INTEL-PRO' disrupted the Right-Wing

DOES FBI'S 'CO-INTEL-PRO' PLAN STILL EXIST?

Every day we read lurid tales about the CIA and its involvement in illegal spying and even assassinations. Dropped from the headlines was the initial investigation of the FBI by Congress and its activities to disrupt and destroy Patriotic Right Wing groups in America. Today the press even states that domestic CIA undercover work would have been alright if it had been left to the FBI.

It seems as if the Congress and the daily press have decided to drop their investigation of the FBI and let the public believe that the only problem with ensuring freedom and justice in this country lies in straightening out the CIA!

Most of the information on the FBI's 'Co-Intel-Pro' programme, designed to wreck the right-wing, was never published in the daily press. Therefore, we publish below information revealed by former Attorney General William Saxbe before he was removed from his post. Many believe that Mr Saxbe was dumped because he revealed too much about the FBI.

The following are facts Saxbe revealed on the FBI's Co-Intel-Programme.

While there is new evidence that Co-Intel-Pro is still going on today it was supposed to have begun against what the FBI described as "White Hate Groups" in 1964. They claim to have ended the programme in 1971. During this period Atty. Gen. Saxbe says the FBI agents came up with 404 proposals on how to disrupt White groups. Higher FBI authorities in Washington approved and implemented 289 of these illegal plans. They determined that 139 were "successful".

WHAT WERE THE PLOTS?

The sabotage of Patriotic Christian groups was broken down into categories. They included the following:

1. Intimidating individual members with unannounced visits intended to frighten them into ceasing their activities.
2. Approaching members considered disaffected in order to bribe them into becoming paid pimps.
3. Creating internal dissensions with the group by having provocateurs play on petty differences of individual members.
4. Manufacturing and planting fictitious material, supposedly showing poor behaviour by a group's leader so that members would quit. Often material was used from the files of the Jewish Anti-Defamation League.

Atty. Gen. Saxbe said that the chief purpose of these activities was to create dissension and cause disruption, to sow dissension internally, and to exploit what otherwise would have been petty disputes. In other words totally wreck and neutralise the effectiveness of the groups' work.

Another important revelation was a special activity which was initiated only against White groups to split them apart. This was the establishment of "sham organisations" for the sole purpose of disruption, discouraging and enticing away loyal members. Saxbe interestingly reveals that five such fake FBI groups were established posing as conservative Rightist groups!

Scotland Report

NS NEWS FROM NORTH OF THE BORDER

The racial movement in Scotland has emerged relatively unscathed and intact in the wake of the major problems that have afflicted the racial/NS scene worldwide in recent times. However this does not mean that we were unaffected. Recent revelations that the grass and cowardly murderer Charlie Sargent was, as early as October '94, informing on Scottish and other British activists in the guise of his Searchlight 'alter-ego' Vikki George, tells us that there are many poignant lessons to be learned from that time.

Sargent's treason, coupled with the major ZOG charade centred around the Highlander PO box in Glasgow's east end in early '97, shows that the occupational government will go to any lengths to ferment hostility and distrust within the various groups and factions in the NS scene.

The movement in Scotland is 99% BNP and to go into the pros and cons of that particular organisation's 'revolutionary' credits would take a further article and thus will have to be answered elsewhere, suffice to say Scottish comrades, and in particular Scottish BNP members, have frequently been at the forefront of many racial activities over the length and breadth of Britain.

As the 'Labour' Party in the rest of the UK dons a 'new' mask for the mentally and racially stunted populace, their counterparts have no such new clothes nor cleverly stunted sound-bites: They are the same old Socialist-cum-Communist/Fenian sympathisers who are determined to see the ultimate end of the British Union and in its stead, a multi-racial, politically correct "soviet" state. In this endeavour they have the same aims and support as the Scottish National Party and the various ad-hoc groups of reds, faggots and ne'er-do-wells who comprise the Scottish Socialist Alliance.

A series of high profile advertising campaigns showing Asians, Blacks and Orientals standing alongside White children have been launched promoting the new devolved Scottish Parliament and frequently the Scottish colloquialism "We're a' Jock Tamson's bairns" - meaning "We're all God's children" - has been the blatant anti-White message.

Latent support for racial politics, or indeed revolution, does exist in Scotland and recent government figures show a rapid growth in 'racial incidents' year after year, with 1997 having an increase of 60% compared to 1996 figures. To National Socialists and racial militants this is merely a drop in the ocean and activists in Scotland do fear for the future of their country as we near the new millennium.

The ZOG puppetmasters have been cleverly using their multiple media outlets to attack any inkling of racial awareness in the Scottish people and there have been many articles concerning the 'evils' of racism. When racial activism reaches the press they feed on the stories like a frenzied pack, all eager to boost their own 'anti-racist' credentials, as can be witnessed in the recent expose articles on B&H and KKK figures in Scotland. The latter case concerned a 60-year-old Dundee man, Ian Christie, who allegedly sent a letter to Dundee's Lord Provost on the occasion when the Provost re-named the local library after the terrorist Congoid Nelson Mandela. Christie, it is claimed, left a thumbprint as part of the threat.

A rare example of media reticence has been the news that militant neo-nazis have tracked down the ANaL clown Ameer Anwar. Anwar, who smashed the Rudolf Hess memorial stone near Glasgow, now works as a racial equality officer for the Central Equality Council in Park Street, Falkirk, where he coins a five figure wage sum and uses that council's budget as an extension of the ANaL's coffers to promote anti-White genocide. We have to assume that the reason for the ZOG media's silence, despite already being mentioned in Colin Jordan's Gothic Ripples and Bagel's Searchlight, is that the disclosure that confidential internal documents between Anwar, the MSF union and Searchlight has fallen into the hands of National Socialists has sent a shiver down the spine of the ZOG establishment.

This report began on a positive, upbeat note, however, it cannot end in the same way. The land of Wallace and Bruce, of Burns and Scott and of Baird and Bell is doomed to a future of 'diversity' and republicanism if we do not draw a symbolic line in the dirt and step across it TODAY.

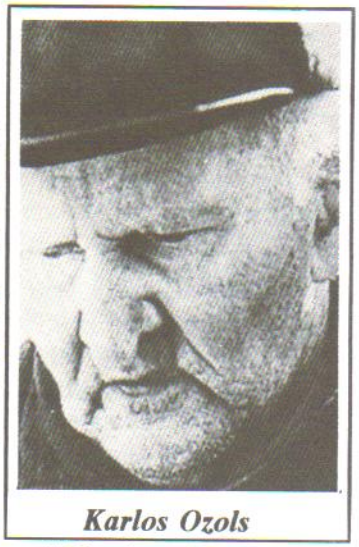
POUND OF FLESH



Karlos Ozols

I've just read a newspaper article about, wait for it, more war crimes witch-hunts. Yawn, yawn.... One of the latest victims is a Latvian named Karlis Ozols. This frail 86-year-old pensioner is now being hounded in his naturalised country, Australia. He has been harassed for the last 12 years by a journalist called Mark Aarons. His exposure led to the Australian government setting up a Special Investigations Unit (S.I.U.) which has so far examined 834 cases, apparently only sending 4 of them, including Karlis's, to the prosecution service. They in turn raided the old man's Melbourne home, seizing so-called 'evidence'. After examining this 'evidence', they found there was insufficient to launch a prosecution. This should have been the end of it you would have thought, however journalists have descended on his house, leading the witch hunt by hounding the pensioner and his frail wife.

The old man is accused of leading a hundred strong group of Latvians in and around Minsk and Belorussia who allegedly killed thousands of civilians. The truth is very different as you would expect: Karlis and his comrades were involved in anti-communist actions. The accusations of the cold-blooded murder of innocent civilians has got more holes in it than Rab C. Nesbitt's vest. We'll repeat what we've said before; all this was 50 years ago and no-one's bothered, no-one wants to waste millions of pounds in pointless investigations and show trials. So stop trying to get your pound of flesh and give it a rest.

ZOG'S MEN IN BLACK ATTACK

The home of Wilf Browning was recently attacked in the early hours of the morning by ZOG. At approximately 4.30am a specialist anti-terrorist assault team stormed the house and arrested Wilf. The squad that launched the raid wasn't the usual muggy police firearms unit with the funny chequered berets but a heavily armed assault team dressed like the S.A.S. complete with ladders, machine guns, etc. Although they raided under the pretext of making an arrest, we think that their real aim was to force an 'incident' where they could take Wilf out. Wilf told us: "I was woken by one of the dogs after he heard a noise downstairs. I went down and started to open the door. As I was doing this, the door and frame started to splinter and split as ZOG put a hydraulic door-breaker on the outside. The door didn't come off straight away and there was a hell of a noise with the dogs barking and ZOG trying to smash the door and shouting. This alerted all the neighbours who started putting their lights on. There were now witnesses to the whole operation and as a result of this they had to carry on as though it was just an ordinary raid instead of what, I believe, they had intended to do: I think the plan was to smash cleanly through the door as I lay in bed, I would then have come running out of the bedroom with a weapon in my hand, as you would do if someone smashed your door in in the middle of the night, then BANG! and "Sorry Guv, we thought he had a gun" - end of story. No enquiry, nothing.

It turned out that the noise which alerted the dog was the ZOG squad trying to creep up to the house; the security system had gone on with all the security lights flashing on, illuminating them so they started to smash the lights which alerted the dog. The dog woke me and made me go downstairs and interrupt their plans. If I hadn't woken at the time I did, I think they would have shot me having taken me by surprise with no neighbours to see everything. If I hadn't already been downstairs and the door went in whilst I was asleep, I would definately have come out with a club or knife, etc. in my hand. All I can say is thank fuck for the dog and the fact that ZOG ballsed-up their entrance.

As it was, it was bad enough: I was assaulted, had shooters stuck in my face and dragged outside naked. My missus was also dragged out of the bedroom at gunpoint by these oh so brave men. I was then handed over to D.I. Les Fitzgerald and his 'Organised Crime Squad'. Then the 'men in black' jumped into a large black van with blacked-out windows and sped off. Fitzgerald then arrested me for 'conspiracy to cause explosions' and I was driven to a ZOG shop whilst my house was searched for explosives for about four hours. Surprise, surprise! No explosives were found so I was released in the evening. Whilst I was at the station I was interviewed concerning a bombing campaign from Denmark. Obviously I made 'no comment'."

Strikeforce believes that this ZOG show of strength was to scare us off and put Wilf out of action. There were no explosives in Wilf's house - no-one's that stupid - and ZOG knew this. Even if they did either shoot Wilf or lock him up for Denmark, the rest of us would still carry on regardless.

Whatever it takes!

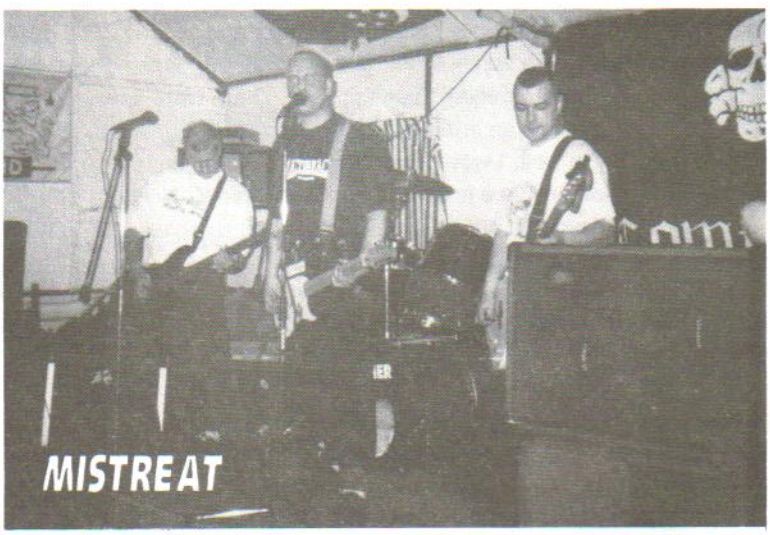
BLOOD & HONOUR MARCHES ON!

For the first time in four years, the buzz is back in Blood & Honour: the atmosphere has returned and everyone is pulling in the same direction - forward! Everyone has woken up to the State's game: "the Sargents divided and the State conquered", but no more - we've seen through it. Gone are the days when you used to go to a gig and the 'bullshit brothers' would be systematically moving around the gig, slithering up to groups of people or individuals so they could sow the seeds of discontent, spread their nasty little lies: "He's said this about you", "Have you heard what so and so's done?", "He's a thief", "He's working with the reds", etc., etc. You name it, they'd spend all night telling different lies to different people, spreading distrust and bad feeling. Well, all that crap has gone now we've got rid of the scum at our gigs and you know what? You can see and feel the difference and it's good riddance. Oh, and for those of you who didn't see the recent Independent on Sunday newspaper article where Steve Sargent was quoted as saying "All skinheads are wankers" and those of you who didn't follow the Chris Castle murder trial where Sargent was heard by a witness saying "I don't give a flying fuck, he was only some skinhead mug", well they weren't saying that when they were milking B&H and skinheads of every penny they could get were they? Anyway, enough of them, it's time to build, it's time to pull together and it's time to be positive. It's not time to forget what we stand for though: B&H was never meant to be some cosy little music club and it never will be. If that's what people want then let them join the Oi scene. When Ian Stuart founded Blood & Honour, he intended it to be at the forefront of our struggle and so it has been: Most of the people who put themselves in the front line are in B&H or have been involved in B&H. We have people who have lost their lives and people who are serving long prison sentences. So when you go to the gigs, just remember them and remember what all the bands sing about.

TOGETHER WE ARE STRONG! WE'VE GOT TO CARRY ON

THE GIG FRONT



The gigs have been going great and since the last issue of Strikeforce there has been around one a month.

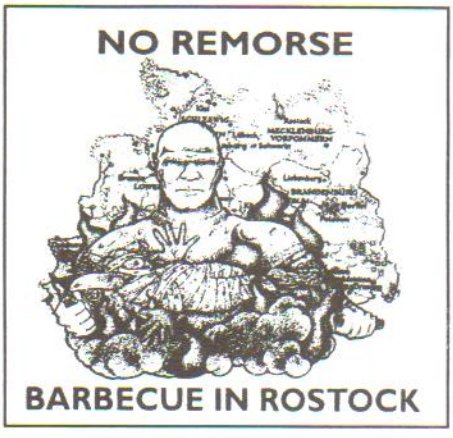
The Mistreat gig in London had some real high points. Along with the brilliant Mistreat, Legion of St George played, Warlord played and the new German band Hate Society made their UK debut and they were brilliant. Their first CD is out now so our advice is get it. If it's as good as their shows it should be a corker. We hope to have Pernod and the boys back again. The White Christmas gig, held in the Midlands, had a great atmosphere and all the bands played well including Warhammer, Legion of St George, Avalon and Warlord. There was no Old Bill intervention and a great time was had by all who attended. A gig was held in Northampton with a small turnout but it was a great gig and everyone who attended enjoyed themselves. I think the best gig by far was the February gig in Coventry. The atmosphere was brilliant - ask anyone who was there. There were loads of old faces as people who hated the Sargents are now coming back to the gigs. Everyone just seemed to be loving it. First on were Violent. They got the gig off to a noisy start and got the crowd warmed up. Then came Avalon who went through their set, belting out all their old favourites. Next were Razors Edge with Stigger on guitar who sent the crowd nuts. It's good to see Andy and the boys back where they belong minus the 'Freak'. Legion of St George ran through their set and the crowd again loved it. Then, just as you thought the crowd couldn't get any rowdier, on walked Stigger and the boys. Warlord's set included Skrewdriver classics and the unmistakable anthems from their debut album. The place was jumping and even the security were looking a bit nervous as they tried to to hold all the loonies back. The atmosphere was brilliant - you just had to be there to appreciate it!

THE BARBECUE COURT CASE

The occupational government recently succeeded in staging another show trial aimed at the very heart of free speech. The victim was a young bloke called Leighton Jones and the venue for this travesty of justice was Cardiff Crown Court.

Music, you'll have to agree, is a form of art, and art should never be stifled (so say the liberals and reds when voices are raised at the sicko filth and pornography that masquerades as 'art' in modern times). When normal folk showed their disgust at the photo' of a man's fist and arm inserted up to the elbow into another man's anus that was amongst a collection displayed in one of our public art galleries and hailed as art or when there was an outcry about the pictures of pre-pubescent girls squatting with their pants down going to the toilet they were ignored. These blatantly deviant works of paedophilia are classed as 'art' and were actually funded by the taxpayer and they are but a few of the thousands of degenerate examples of 'modern art' which are openly displayed and encouraged by the sickos that pull the strings. Anyone who raises their voice in opposition to these abominations is instantly shouted down by the press: 'nazi', 'bigot', 'bookburner', etc., you name it. They scream that artists should be allowed to do whatever they want and they protest at all forms of censorship. They'll sit there and tell us that art breaks down social barriers, etc., etc.

Well, if that's the case, why can't we listen to works of art like Barbecue in Rostock? Why can't artists like No Remorse, People Haters, Chingford Attack, etc. play and create their own masterpieces? Who the hell gave this bunch of kiddy-touching perverts the right to tell us what to listen to? It seems that it's one law for the nonces, perverts and weirdo modern artists (?) and one law for us.



As for Mr Jones, he received a 6 month jail sentence at Cardiff Crown Court for producing Barbecue in Rostock; another victim of democracy and freedom of speech. Strikeforce sends its regards to comrade Jones; he kept his mouth shut and didn't implicate anyone else. He is another POW, another in a long line of dissidents jailed by the thought police. So remember him and people like him when you hand over ten quid and buy that little silver disc. Think about him and people like him who've lost their freedom before you moan about some irrelevant detail. How many of you are willing to go to jail in pursuit of Freedom? Not many I'll bet!

WHITE WARRIOR

Comrade Niclas Lofdahl was recently dragged through ZOG's courts in Sweden over an alleged C18 bomb plot after parcels containing dynamite were allegedly sent to politicians in Sweden. At his trial Nikki stood firm and he deserves our support. Nikki leaves a wife and child on the outside so spare a few thoughts for him while he's in jail. We look forward to his release whenever it may be.

Hail Nikki! Hail the Aryan Brotherhood! Hail C18 Sweden!!

INTERVIEW WITH THE BLACKSHIRTS

Strikeforce is pleased to announce yet another addition to the British Blood & Honour scene that is growing all the time. Meet 'The Blackshirts'. Born out of Chingford Attack, they hail from East London/Essex and are renowned for having a strong local following with a good number of lads and lasses travelling with them wherever they go, breeding a strong sense of comradeship in a strong social group.

We caught up with them at their local watering hole and one of the first things that struck us about these lads was their youth and all that goes with that: enthusiasm and idealism. They are a breath of fresh air into the movement and in spite of their ages (all in their early '20s) they have been active in the B&H scene for quite a few years, both during their Chingford Attack days and before. Here's what the lads had to say:

Strikeforce: What's your current line-up and where do you come from?

The Blackshirts: We've got Brett (vocals), Matt (bass), Graham (guitar) and Big Phil (drums). We all come from the East End of London originally but we now live in Essex.

Strikeforce: What are your backgrounds in the British B&H scene?

The Blackshirts: Matt the bassist replies, "Graham, Brett and I are former members of Chingford Attack. Graham also played a couple of times for Razors Edge. My brother Brett used to do backing vocals for Chingford Attack and we met up with Phil the drummer when we were at the rehearsal studios with our old band where he used to hang around."

Strikeforce: Where do your musical influences lie?

The Blackshirts: Skrewdriver, No Remorse, Berserkr, Shut Down, Day of the Sword, 4 Skins, Cock Sparrer, Dickies, Motorhead, Type O Negative, Cannibal Corpse and Aryan.

Strikeforce: What do you think of the British B&H scene at the moment?

The Blackshirts: Brettley says, "Warhammer are definitely a boost to the B&H scene and we really admire the dedication of Warlord, Razors Edge and the Legion of St George."

Strikeforce: Do you support any political movements?

The Blackshirts: We support all pro-White groups but we especially support Combat 18 and the B&H music scene.

Strikeforce: Are you interested in touring Europe and if yes where would you like to play?

The Blackshirts: We are definitely interested in travelling and we would love to play in Sweden again as we once played there with Chingford Attack. We'd also like to do Germany and play for the Veneto Front in Italy.

Strikeforce: Who are your heroes of the White Race?

The Blackshirts: Obviously the old boys; Adolf Hitler, Rudolf Hess and Oswald Mosley. More recently; Robert Matthews and Ian Stuart.

Strikeforce: What bands would you most like to gig with outside the British scene?

The Blackshirts: Aryan, Hatemonger, Berserkr, Lancer, Hate Society, Mistreat and White Wolf.

Strikeforce: What's the best thing that's happened on the B&H scene in recent times?

The Blackshirts: Definitely the life sentences given to Sargent and Cross last January for the disgusting murder of B&H member Chris Castle. We were so pissed off when we went to the courtcase to support the Castle family.

Strikeforce: When is your debut CD due out and on what record label?

The Blackshirts: We hope to be releasing our debut CD in June and it'll be out on our own British label, I.S.D. Records. We have seen their money going to help our own POW's wives within the B&H scene including two of our mates sent down for racially inflammatory material. At the end of the day, that's what it's all about: a united movement pulling together and helping each other out.

Strikeforce: Any closing comments from you lads?

The Blackshirts: Cheers for the interview. Hope to see you soon. White Power! Hail C18! Hail B&H! We're off to the bar. Get the beers in Jodie the Roadie. Sieg Heil!

For more information on the Blackshirts, write to: Heritage Posters or Strikeforce at the usual address.

Blood & Honour

THE WORLDWIDE SCENE

SCANDINAVIA

Scandinavian B&H are really doing well and they deserve a bit of respect. Despite massive police pressure they have managed to hold it all together over there, releasing their own B&H mag, Blood and Honour Scandinavia, with a full colour cover and packed with news and views. They are an example to some of us B&H veterans and seem to be leading the way.

The main praise I have for them is that they are very political, they're not just music fans and they actively help comrades in other countries to set up units. They publish a very informative mag, not just another fanzine Show 'em your support.

DEUTSCHLAND

Despite the oppressive laws in Germany, they just can't stop the rise of White Power bands with hundreds of CDs being released, gigs all over the place and new bands being formed all the time. This is without doubt the biggest scene in Europe, there is said to be around 150 racist bands over there! If the kids wanna rock, they will. Deutschland will rise again!

EASTERN EUROPE

The former Soviet Bloc countries are seeing a massive upsurge in the White Power music scene: Hungary, Serbia, Slovenia, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Poland and even Russia have extremely active B&H units. After predictable calls for action from reds, liberals, etc., the governments of these countries are trying to crack down, bringing in new laws all the time but it's too late, the kids have already got the bug: they've started to wake up!

ITALY

The Venito boys are keeping up the fight, holding gigs for both Warlord and LSG. Our Italian comrades are still operating despite major ZOG oppression. In fact, Ciao and a load of his boys are up in court at the moment, in a trial which has been dragging on for about two years, involving around fifty people who are all charged with ridiculous 'race crimes'. We wish them well - keep up the fight.

NOT SO QUIET ON THE EASTERN FRONT

This February saw the coming together of Militant National Socialist activists from all over Eastern Europe. They came together in a show of defiance to ZOG and to march in memory of Waffen SS soldiers who died in the Crusade for Europe (1939-45). Over 1000 comrades took to the streets in Budapest, Hungary. These comrades from Serbia, Hungary, Germany, Slovakia, Bulgaria, Austria and Russia came together in a real show of European NS unity. The march was watched by 400 police who didn't dare intervene. As can be expected, the media ran the usual smear stories but who cares what they say? At the end of the march, speeches were delivered by representatives from all the different nations, including representatives of B&H. That evening there was a Rock Against Communism gig with great bands from Serbia, Hungary and Germany. The whole day was a blow to the occupational forces and a show of White solidarity. We hope to see you all there next year.

THE SERBIAN B&H SCENE

NEW RELEASES

Serbian B&H band Providence's first CD comes out for Movement Records around now. The have also released a second cassette titled 'Power of Race'. The cassette is priced 10 Deutschmarks from Dragan Petrovic Ive Andrica Z-15 2/3, 35000 Jagodina, Serbia.

Their first cassette, Red, Rad, Disciplina, is also available. They're a good band and well worth a listen.

Agressiya have just released a four song demo tape. A full cassette is coming soon....Radical Patriots, a band from Belgrade, have a cassette out called 'Life is a Struggle'. Contact address is: Aleks Maksovic, Bulevar Arseniya Carnoyevica 126/2/2, 11000 Beograd, Serbia....Razors 88 is a new band from Novi Sad and are due to release a new cassette soon....Sorab 18 (Serbia 18), a band from Jagodina are also recording a new cassette called Born for Victory. State Impact have released their first cassette called Serbia for the Serbians and is available from: Jelena Malinovic, Loznicka 19/2, 1100 Beograd, Serbia.

ZINES

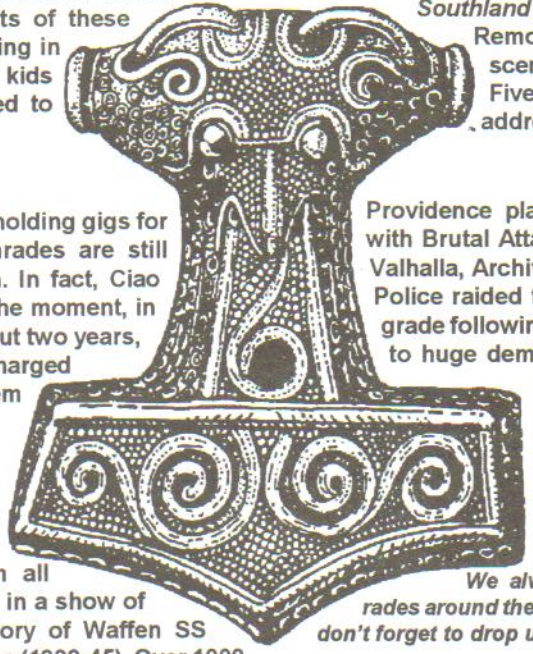
More details of other Serbian B&H bands are available from the following zines:

Serbian Blood & Honour #2 is now out and contains news from Excalibur (Germany), Buldok, Valhalla, Noi Verte and Gesta Bellica.

Only five Deutschmarks from the 'Providence' bands address.

Southland #2 is out featuring interviews with No Remorse and Providence, the Czech B&H scene and much more.

Five Deutschmarks from the Radical Patriots' address.



OTHER NEWS

Providence played a great gig in Budapest, Hungary, with Brutal Attack, Bound for Glory, Aryan, Max Resist, Valhalla, Archivum and Nimrod.

Police raided the homes of over 300 skinheads in Belgrade following the death of a Gypsy. This death has led to huge demonstrations and media condemnation of racism and skinheads.

As you can see, the growth of the NS scene in Serbia is continuing to grow at a steady pace. We thank Bajba from Serbian B&H for keeping us informed. Europe Awake!

We always welcome B&H reports from our comrades around the world so if you want us to publish your news, don't forget to drop us a line.

NORTH EAST B&H ROCKS THE REDS!

North East Blood and Honour staged their first gig for years on March 14th '98. The gig was held near Durham and attracted a surprisingly good crowd and it was good to see all the lads from Durham, Chilton, Newcastle and Sunderland as well as lads from London, Yorkshire and the Midlands.

The first band up were Conquest who delivered a really good set, going through all the crowd favourites. It was good to see them back on the road with a full line-up again.

The headline band was local lads Warhammer. If you haven't seen this five-piece band live then you've been missing out, they've got to be one of the best live bands out there. The singer looks like the Hulk and he's got a powerful voice to match as he belts out the bands own material as well as classics from Skrewdriver and Lynard Skynard like Sweet Home Alabama. These boys really got the crowd going nuts and they've got to be one of the best bands out for years. They're due to record their debut album on I.S.D. shortly. If their recorded material is as good as their live sound we should be in for a treat. This gig was a sure sign of the new enthusiasm in the B&H scene. It was good to be there and let's hope it's the first of many.

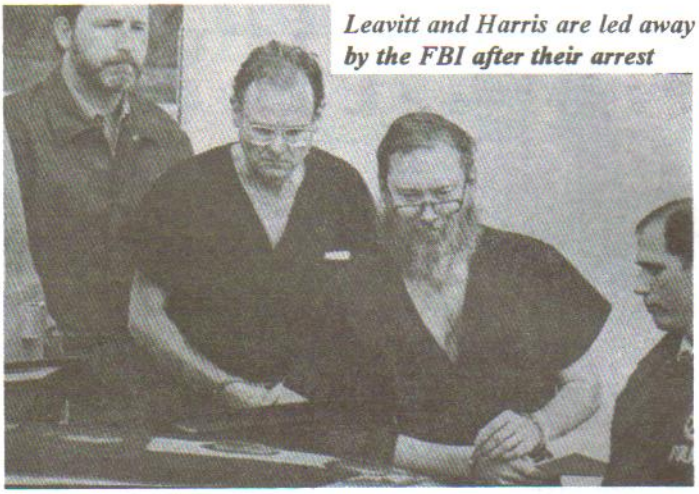
ZOG'S PANIC ATTACK

Get your gas masks on ZOG Armageddon might be closer than you think!

The FBI's anti-terrorist squad and all US law enforcement agencies have been put on a heightened state of alert as a high-profile anti-government protester was found in possession of chemical weapons. Larry Wayne Harris, along with William Leavitt, were arrested in Las Vegas in possession of phials of anthrax virus after a FBI informer tipped off the occupational government.

Harris had been arrested previously in 1995 for being in possession of three phials of bubonic plague virus. However, possession of such substances is not illegal in the USA unless it can be proved that the holder intends to release them. The White House has been warned that home-produced biological and chemical weapons are a growing threat. Response teams in 120 cities are being trained in chemical warfare defence techniques in case of attack.



Leavitt and Harris are led away by the FBI after their arrest

The thing that the occupational government should realise is that the more they oppress people and the more desperate people become, then the more desperate their actions will be. If a person or a group decide there is no hope and there's nothing they can do to prevent the destruction of their race/nation, then they might just think fuck it, Armageddon. Think about it!

Editor's note: The news recently hit the headlines in the UK that naughty Saddam Hussain has been trying to smuggle anthrax, developed by Britain during WW2, into the UK. Whether this is true or not, and we all know ZOG's scare stories about regimes that don't fit in with their pro-Zionist policy, doesn't matter: The New World Order have pushed Saddam to the edge with their sanctions whilst ignoring Israeli atrocities against his fellow Arabs and when he sees his people dying from starvation and lack of medical supplies he might think "What have I got to lose, Britain is Clinton's 51st State, let them suffer". ZOG don't like it when their weapons of 'mass destruction' affect them do they?

FREEDOM OF SPEECH - AMERICAN STYLE

Those upholders of peace and democracy, those self-appointed world policemen, the United States of America, are once again sticking their noses in European affairs. Why? This time it's because they don't want a certain Serbian political group being freely elected to power. These audacious toe-rags sent in three US Air Force EC-130s and, get this, jammed the Serb's political broadcasts during their elections and substituted the Serb broadcasts with their own! What the hell happened to free speech? What happened to a people's right to elect a government of their choice not puppets strategically placed by Washington.

KEEP YOUR NOSE OUT UNCLE SAM!

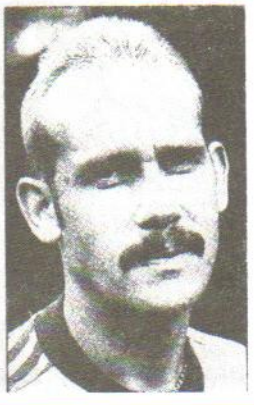
THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT MURDERED BILLY WRIGHT

As we go to press, serious questions are being raised about the British Government's involvement in the assassination of Loyalist Volunteer Force leader Billy Wright. Billy Wright put his own name on the government's hit list when he refused to sit back and watch his people be betrayed by the British Government and their cronies. When Billy Wright was shot, most Loyalists thought the whole thing stank of government/INLA collusion and now, with the latest evidence being brought to light, there can be no doubt the British State has his blood on their hands.

It turns out that the wire separating the LVF wing from the Irish National Liberation Army wing had been cut two days prior to Wright's murder, allowing the INLA gunmen to get to him. It is now known that the guards knew about this. The INLA were allowed to smuggle guns into a top security prison, again with the knowledge of the warders. The visitor passes were supposedly muddled up, conveniently giving the INLA previous knowledge of when Billy Wright was going to be in the yard. It has also been revealed that the guards in the watchtower overlooking the yard were mysteriously called away just before the shooting occurred and the security cameras were not turned on at the time. Surprise, surprise! Not to us it isn't. It's so obvious that the government actually connived with the INLA and they look pretty stupid denying it.

Whether or not you agree with Billy Wright, you cannot agree with the government taking out one of its own citizens just because they chose to be loyal and made a stand against their treachery. It's about time Downing Street came clean about its part in Billy Wright's murder NOW!

NO SURRENDER!



BILLY WRIGHT R.I.P.

Murdered by the State because he refused to toe the line and make a compromise with the enemies of Britain

And far beyond the clear sky of the little town and the thin atmosphere of this little planet, in the cold, dark realm of fathomless Void, the unseen stars had very definite positions, such as they take only once within hundreds of years in relation to any particular spot on earth. And at the appointed time - six o'clock in the afternoon - the Child came into the world, unnoticed masterpiece of a twofold cosmic play: of the mysterious artistry of Aryan blood in infinite time; of the mysterious influence of distant worlds in infinite space. Apparently, just another baby in the family. In reality - after centuries - a new divine Child on this planet; the first one in the West after the legendary Baldur-the-Fair and, like He, a Child of the Sun; a predestined Fighter against the forces of death and a Saviour of men, marked out for leadership, for victory, for agony and for immortality.

A MAN AGAINST TIME

May his immortal spirit be with you throughout the year, giving you renewed strength each day.

Fit for Battle or Fit to Drop? Master Race or Disgrace?

For a movement that shouts about the 'Master-Race', war and all the rest of it, most of the people involved couldn't run up a flight of stairs. It never ceases to amaze me when at a Nationalist meeting or event, the talk is of White Pride or how superior we all are, yet the majority of people who lap up the speeches or eagerly read the magazines promoting White pride are chain-smoking, burger munching, beer guzzling monsters! All joking aside, it's about time people involved in our struggle started to get themselves fit and in shape so: 1) They can live a healthy life; 2) to set a good example and 3) so they are fit to fight!

Anyway, harping back to the good old days, the whole National Socialist movement was based on competition, physical fitness and prowess: 'survival of the fittest'. To survive, the whole race should strive for full health and fitness so that it can fight in Nature's Eternal struggle. Get yourself in shape Whiteman, it doesn't take much. As technology has supposedly advanced, we have become a race of slobs: driving never walking, slobbing around on the settee. The most physical thing most of you do is press the buttons on your remote control. Get yourself into shape White man - you never know what's around the corner! For those of you who are gonna read this and start getting fit, you'll need to know what exercises to do, and how often to do it.

If you start hitting the weights alone, then all you'll do is put on muscle if you do it enough. It might make you look good, but weights alone won't make you fit. To get fit you need to exercise your heart and lungs - this is called cardiovascular exercise. This involves exercises which get the heart and lungs pumping, such as running, bike riding, etc. The best form of training must be boxing training - not only does it offer good cardiovascular exercise when you do road running, skipping or working out on the punchbag, but it also teaches you how to fight and defend yourself. Incorporate this with a few light weight training exercises and you won't go wrong. There will be boxing gyms near you which you can join or if you don't want to join a public gym, get a decent punchbag and sling it up in a spare room or in your garage. Punchbags are cheap enough and easy to string up. Get a couple of pairs of boxing gloves and have sparring sessions with a mate or couple of mates. It doesn't cost anything to jog a couple of miles around the block a couple of times a week does it? If you've got somewhere to skip, then get yourself a decent leather skipping rope. Any boxer will tell you that this is one of the best forms of exercise you can get. ALL boxers do it. Try and do your weights sessions twice a week. This is good for keeping your muscles in shape and building a bit of strength.

All you need is a cheap weights bench. If you shop around you can pick new ones up for about £60 - and a set of weights. Weights can be bought cheaply, any old second-hand set will do, it doesn't matter what they look like. Between you and a mate it shouldn't break the bank. As long as you're only doing weights to keep you in shape and compliment your cardiovascular training and you're not trying to look like Arnold Schwartzenegger, then you don't need to do hundreds of different exercises and lift heavy weights. These six exercises shown are the basic ones and are all you'll need for basic overall workouts. You only need to do light to medium weights; use weights with which you can do sets of ten repetitions and stick to about 3 sets of each exercise.

Try to do your weights workouts twice a week, that's all you need or if you've got the energy at the end of your boxing sessions. When you do the weights, make sure you don't overdo it and learn how to perform the exercises safely and correctly - ALWAYS warm up first to avoid injury. After about three months of exercising you should start to feel the benefits. At the same time, try to improve your diet; knock the beer and fags on the head and give junk food a miss. Remember: "You are what you eat". Now get off your backside and get fit!

STRIKEFORCE PRISONERS' ASSOCIATION

No man escapes when freedom fails, the best they rot in filthy jails, and those who cried "Appease, Appease" are hanged by those they tried to please

Do you ever think of those comrades who have lost their liberty for fighting for our cause? If you've not been inside one of ZOG's gulags you'll not know what it's like to be locked in a cell 23 hours a day surrounded by the scum of the earth, imprisoned by a system that is doing everything it can to break you.

Many of us have already 'done time for the cause' but it is a fact that the numbers of National Socialist Prisoners of War is increasing as the occupational government knows that the fightback has begun.

These comrades have lost their freedom for everything you believe in: they have fought back against tyranny and are paying the price. They need your support. It wouldn't harm any of you to put pen to paper and drop one or some of these comrades a line or two telling them they are not forgotten. The Strikeforce Prisoners' Association is the only N.S. P.O.W. support group in Britain that is helping our comrades that are languishing in the hellholes. We need your help: We need unmarked postage stamps; old Nationalist publications; skinzines; football zines; military mags; books; etc. Most of all we need cash donations to help the families of our POWs. Please send all your donations to BM BOX 5581, LONDON WC1N 3XX, ENGLAND making any cheques out to 'Heritage Posters'. Thanks to all who have written and donated already. NB: Don't send publications with your first letter. Prisons are infested with the enemies of our race and it's not always safe for our POWs to be seen receiving our literature. Please remember to send us the names and addresses of any NS POWs not on our list.

SECURITY WARNING TO P.O.W.S

It has come to our attention that fake letters full of lies, disinformation and outrageous slanders have been sent to POWs in Germany and elsewhere claiming to be from Wilf Browning and others. In these letters decent NS activists have been accused of everything from being state agents to queers and thieves. We categorically state that these letters are NOT from Wilf Browning or anyone else connected with B&H/C18.

After investigating these fake letters, it became clear that they were sent by Steve Sargent and Co. with the clear intention to: 1) cause trouble and disunity in Germany by slandering decent National Socialists and 2) to discredit Wilf. Unluckily for Sargent, his little plan was discovered and he has been made to look like a sneaky, conniving scumbag with his agent provocateur actions once again being exposed for everyone to see.

The way in which he has attempted to involve POWs in his treachery is more proof of his lowlife nature and is unforgivable. You've been caught once again Stevie Boy - it's all over you sad little man.

P.O.W.S BEWARE - AGENT PROVOCATEURS ARE TRYING TO USE YOU!

THE WITCH HUNTS GO ON...

Another frail pensioner has been arrested by the forces of darkness. The old man was living quietly in Stuttgart until his recent arrest. Alfons Gotzfried has been charged with the usual crap: Killing 70,000 civilians in the Ukraine, etc., etc. The unbelievable aspect of this case is that former SS man Gotzfried has already been punished as a 'war criminal'. He was tried by the Soviets and imprisoned in the Siberian Gulag System after the war.

For God's sake, the man's done his porridge - what purpose can this trial serve?

...AND ON AND ON

A Military Appeal Court sentenced two more pensioners on March 7th to life imprisonment. Erich Priebke and Karl Hass were jailed for a supposed attack on civilians in caves near Rome in 1944. Authorities are now believed to be considering a change in the law which would allow the corpses of German soldiers to be dug up so they can be posthumously tried for 'war crimes'. They are also considering trying the children of alleged 'war criminals' for their fathers' crimes. One ZOG spokesman enthusiastically announced: "If these proposals are accepted, the scope is endless. We can then go on and charge the grandchildren and who knows, even their children. We could string these trials out for ever, in fact we're even talking of building a special court complex called 'Nuremburg-World'. Imagine the tickets we could sell."

CYBER-TERROR ATTACK ROCKS ZOG!

Could Techno-terrorism bring results?

Nowadays we find ourselves living in a computer age where every aspect of our lives is influenced by the microchip. Everything from the military, our financial systems, our hospitals, power supplies, etc. are all reliant on computer technology in some form or another. Whenever there is a fault in the computer systems that operate these services, the effects can be quite devastating. In the wrong hands (or right hands, depending on your politics) the knowledge that enables someone to be able to sabotage computer networks belonging to ZOG could be a more pernicious weapon in the dissident arsenal than any conventional weaponry such as bombs or guns! Think about it; if you plant a bomb it could only cause superficial damage to the occupying government unless of course it is very strategically placed. As you are aware, most terrorist bombs are aimed at getting publicity or to draw attention to a certain cause but, sadly, they can be indiscriminate and kill innocent civilians. The clean-kill alternative of cleverly targeted techno-attacks aimed solely at the occupying forces and those that help them maintain their position is a better choice.

No-one is more aware of the possible threat of cyber-terrorism than Louis Freeh, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The FBI has sprung into action after systems right across the USA were 'frozen' by a cleverly launched attack over the internet. All across America, machines running the 'Windows NT' operating system and connected to the Internet crashed leaving military machines run by the Navy down along with 14 out of 15 systems run by NASA.

After the deliberate nature of the attack was discovered, Louis Freeh appeared in front of a Senate committee to ask for increased spending to combat the techno-terrorist threat. The occupational government is realising the threat of computer-based attacks. Only days ago, the Pentagon had to admit that there had been a major assault on its computer systems. ZOG observers have increasingly warned that the frequency and sophistication of the 'hack attacks' will only increase as dissident groups realise that they can strike at the very heart of ZOG at the touch of a few buttons. It doesn't matter what government specialists invent to counter the techno-terrorist, there is always a way around their anti-hacker programmes and the more ZOG relies on computers, the more damage can be done by attacking their systems. So all you techno-terrorists out there, get working on your 'hack-attacks'.

KICKBACK! QUESTION! DISOBEY!

ARM THE LOYALISTS II
GIVE 'EM A HOMELAND

I don't know about you but I'm pissed off with all the peace talk crap that's on all the TV news reports and in the press. Just what is there to talk about? The Provo's want a United Ireland and the Loyalists don't - that is the bottom line. This so-called ceasefire is a joke: Every time that smarmy bastard Adams and his Marxist cronies don't like something they threaten to 'return to violence' or they plant a bomb using some cover name such as the 'Continuity IRA'. This isn't a ceasefire, it's blackmail! It's as simple as that, they're just mugging us all off. I don't know about you but my feelings go out to the lads in the Maze: They've done their bit by putting themselves on the line but they've got sit and watch this farce. Will they have to sit and watch these 'talks' go back and forward for the next decade when there will be enough Republicans to out-vote the Loyalists anyway? This IS what is going to happen unless the supposed Loyalist politicians get their act together and come across with some decent proposals. They must realise that the clock is ticking away. Don't they realise that successive British Governments, both Tory and Labour, have totally betrayed them? Don't they realise that the British Government couldn't care less about the Loyalist population of Ulster and want to wash their hands of the whole country? Why be loyal to a government that isn't loyal to you? It's time to exercise the right of self-determination; time to begin to think of self-preservation. It's time to turn your backs on the traitors in Whitehall who have turned their backs on loyal Ulster and it's time to draw a line in the dirt and demand no more betrayals and no more concessions to the Provo's and their lackeys. It's time to resurrect the battle cry of 'No Surrender' to both Dublin and Westminster.

There can only be one solution: An independent Ulster, run by Loyalists for Loyalists. Who can moan about that? Gerry Adams himself has been quoted as saying "a people have a right to self-determination" in regards to Estonia, I think it was a few years ago. So he can't object to the Loyalists' right to self-determination can he? And I'm sure most of the Loyalists in Ulster would rather have possession and control of their own country than see it ruled by the traitors in Westminster, or even worse by Dublin which could well be a reality if things go on as they are.

How could this be achieved I hear you ask? Well if the Loyalist politicians had any bollocks they'd turn round and say to Sinn Fein and the British Government: "If you want peace, give us three counties where we can live in peace, preserve our own way of life and call it our own. You either give it to us or we fight for it - those are our peace terms." At the same time all the pro-Loyalist politicians should publicly urge all Loyalists to move into the three predominantly Loyalist counties. It would then be the job of the paramilitaries to protect the fledgling nation until it has its own police force and army. I'm sure they could take anything the Provo's could throw at them. All this would take a lot of time and effort but it's well worth fighting for. The choice is simple: It's either independence or we are destined for yet more years of betrayals, more sell-outs and eventually no Ulster! That is the reality. Surely most of the ordinary 'Joe Public' Catholics would think "Fuck it, let the Prods have it" rather than face another 25 years of violence, especially if they saw a determined Loyalist population intent on defending themselves. The fact that they had been given three counties would take a lot of wind out of Sinn Fein's sails. Think about it; it's the only sensible solution. There doesn't have to be hostilities between the two sides as long as they kept their noses out of the Loyalist country's business. As for the British Government, who needs them and their treachery? You just have to look at what happens to the people who see through this Government's phoney peace process or sell-out: Billy Wright stuck two fingers up to the Government and he was murdered, and you ain't telling me he was not set up! Guns smuggled in, they knew exactly where he was going to be and at what time. The whole thing stinks.

The people of Ulster are at the crossroads: what path will they take? The path that the British Government wants and the ultimate sell-out or will they break the chains and go it alone?
